

'GERMANY IN OPEN REBELLION'

DONAHEY URGES A BIPARTISAN BOARD IN OHIO

Governor Sends Second
Message to State
Assembly

PENAL INSTITUTIONS

Executive Deals Entirely
With Ohio Prison System
In Statement

Columbus, Jan. 26.—In his second message to the general assembly Governor Donahey recommended the restoration of control and management of the 23 state penal, correctional and charitable institutions, caring for 25,000 wards of the state, to a bipartisan board, abolishing the one man welfare director control plan established two years ago under the Davis reorganization bill.

The message dealt entirely with state institution control, and particularly with the state's prison system. He recommended that the old penitentiary in Columbus be retained as a clearing house for men convicted of felonies; that hardened and irredeemable prisoners be retained there and others put to work for the state at the London prison farm, producing food for the state institutions and making road building materials.

Enlargement of the state's brick plant and building of a cement factory for the extensive manufacture of road building materials, the governor contended, would not only help defeat the present high cost of roads, but would solve the "idle house" problem at the penitentiary, which he characterized as a "disgrace to the state" and "a menace to society."

Referring to the agitation for a new state institution for the care of the feeble-minded, the governor said while this might be advisable before long the state should first bring the Orient farm, a branch of the state institution for feeble-minded, to the capacity originally intended by building new cottages there.

In urging a return to the board of control plan for the state institutions, which was established by Governor Harmon in 1911, Governor Donahey gave it as his opinion that no one person possesses all the qualifications necessary and that "the best solution lies in the restoration of a bipartisan board of members appointed for definite terms, of which not more than one is to expire in any one year."

"Under such a plan," said the governor in his message, "there would always be an experienced membership on the board to carry on a continuity of policy and to stabilize possible caprices of new members."

Other Changes Sought.
The governor also advocated restoring to such a board the purchasing department for state institutions, which was transferred to the state purchasing agent when the Davis bill was passed. This plan, the governor declared, has proven "most unsatisfactory to state institutions."

Another difficulty with the present welfare director system, the governor declared, is that plans and specifications for institutional buildings are drafted by the state highway department instead of the department of welfare and that contracts for these buildings are awarded by the highway department, when they should be under the control of the welfare department. Construction of institutional cottages under the present plan, he said, costs three times as much as it did under the old board of administration.

Another recommendation which the governor said has been endorsed by all agencies familiar with the subject is that the state board of pardons and paroles be composed of members who can give all their time to the work instead of having a superintendent of pardons and paroles with two other members who are employees of the department of welfare and have other duties. He urged re-establishment of a bipartisan board of two members, each to devote all of his time to the study of applications for pardons and paroles.

The governor urged that the work of eliminating fire hazards, which has been started since he assumed office, be continued in the interests of thousands of helpless unfortunates locked in buildings which are fire hazards.

PAYS SUPREME PENALTY.
Columbus, Jan. 26.—Making no statement concerning his crime, Ludie Clifford Shelton, 32, colored, met death in the electric chair at the penitentiary at 12:08 o'clock this morning. He was convicted of murdering Patrolman William H. Dietz at Cincinnati, August 28, 1918. Rev. Father Kelly, Catholic chaplain at the penitentiary, walked with Shelton to the death chair. One application of electricity was sufficient to cause Shelton's death.

Klan Members Are Arrested

WOMAN MAIMED BY MASKED FLOGGERS

Mrs. R. H. Harrison and daughter.

Mrs. R. H. Harrison, of Goose Creek, Texas, has arrived in Houston to seek justice and protection from the Federal Government. Mrs. Harrison and R. A. Armand, a friend, who was visiting her on the night of January 5, were taken from her home by masked marauders and brutally horsewhipped. In addition, her hair, described as strikingly beautiful, was cropped off close to the scalp, necessitating the wearing of a wig. Mrs. Harrison is shown here with her daughter, Bonnie Lee.

FUTURE GENERATIONS TO SUFFER FOR WAR

Major General Henry T. Allen of American Army of Occupation Says Harm done by French Invasion Is Incalculable.

Berlin, Jan. 26.—Major General Henry T. Allen, commander in chief of the departed American army of occupation on the Rhine, was quoted today by a leading German journalist as predicting that future generations would suffer "from what is now going on in the Rhineland." The American soldier declared that "occupation is never pleasant," and that "incalculable damage already has been done."

The interview was telegraphed from Coblenz by Rolf Brandt, of the Lokal Anzeiger. General Allen has remained behind after the American army departed for Antwerp to sail for home. He and a handful of American soldiers will wind up all official business and then formally turn Coblenz over to the French.

OPPOSITION TO WITHDRAWAL OF BRITISH TROOPS

Lord Berby Fights Suggestion at Meeting of the Cabinet

London, Jan. 26.—Lord Derby, secretary of state for war, opposed withdrawal of the British army of occupation from the Rhine when the British cabinet met today to canvass the Ruhr situation and the latest Rhineland developments.

Premier A. Bonar Law told his colleagues he would be guided by two motives, first, public opinion, second, the best interests of the nation. The premier not only wants to assist the country financially and commercially but he wishes to extend his policy of "peace and tranquility."

While Bonar Law is displeased with the French policy, fearing that it will bring future troubles and perhaps war, he realizes that withdrawal from continental Europe would hamper Great Britain's international influence in the future.

MRS. CROKER TO MARRY TRAINER

Dublin, Jan. 26.—A persistent report was current here today that Mrs. Richard Croker, widow of the former New York city tammany leader, will marry P. J. Field, who trained the late Mr. Croker's race horses.

The interviewer quoted General Allen as follows:
"I believe that children just now being born will suffer as grown ups the consequences of what is now happening. Even if there should be a sudden end of what is now transpiring, incalculable damage already has been done."

"It seems very difficult to find the necessary solution. It is a terrible situation and it is terrible to contemplate that little tots, now playing with their toys, most probably will suffer from the grave consequences in the future."

"Belief exists on both sides of the Rhine that the outlook for Europe is very grave to contemplate. There is a curious aspect regarding America in this whole situation. One might well ask: Can America look on indifferently while one market after another is destroyed or is eliminated for years?"

THREAT RECEIVED POLICE NOTIFIED

Steuersville, O., Jan. 26.—Jefferson County deputy sheriffs all last night guarded the pool room and residence of A. D. Serafine, of Yorkville, south of here, who has been threatened with death and the destruction of his property in a letter demanding $2,000. No attempt at violence, however, had been made early today.

Serafine appealed to authorities last night following receipt of the letter demanding money and the death threat.

The Yorkville man had a similar experience about a year ago when a bomb was placed under his home when he refused the money demanded. Several years ago in Steubenville, Serafine suffered a brand on his cheek when he refused money.

SEVERAL INJURED TRAIN DERAILED

Scottsboro, Ala., Jan. 26.—Three railroad employees were injured early today when Southern passenger train No. 26, en route from Memphis to Washington, was derailed near here. A broken rail is said to have caused the wreck.

The engine, express and mail cars and all the day coaches left the rails, but the pullman cars remain on the track. None of the cars overturned and the passengers were uninjured.

POLICE OF NEW YORK NAB EIGHT AFTER MEETING

Charged With Having
Liquor and Carrying Black
Jacks by Officers

UNDER FALSE NAME

Session Held in Traffic
Court — Cops Kept
Long Watch

New York, Jan. 26.—Eight members of the Ku Klux Klan are being held by the police today following the first arrests made here at the conclusion of a Klan meeting. The men are not charged with being Klan members but one of them is charged with having liquor in his possession and two others with carrying black jacks.

The men were subjected to a lengthy grilling by Lieutenant Gegan of the bomb squad, who ordered them held pending further investigation.

The police intimated that the grand kleeagle of the state also attended the meeting but escaped in an automobile according to the police.

The gathering was held in Brooklyn and had been announced merely as a meeting of the "marine circle." Gegan, however, says he has information to prove that it was a gathering of Klan No. 2 of New York.

Those arrested are: Ellsworth B. Mors, John E. Collins, W. P. Simmons, advertising manager, Underwood typewriter company, John MacDonald, Robert Fisher, Thomas Jones Charles Mulford and C. A. Clark.

The arrests were the result of a keen watch by members of the bomb squad upon members of the "invisible empire," Gegan said his men had been on the trail of the klansmen for weeks and when the grand kleeagle of New York state began to speak one of his men was in the audience in full Klan regalia.

The meeting had been held in the traffic court, a place rented to labor organizations.

The "marine circle," according to Gegan, was simply the name given by the klans to hire the court to hold their midnight meetings.

Brooklyn Klan No. 8, according to the police, have made traffic court its headquarters for more than a year, using assumed names to secure its rental. That meeting place, police say, was one of the safest they could possibly have found for very few would think of hunting the klansmen in a court.

From the very bench from which judges handed down decisions during the day the king kleeagle gave his orders to the white robed klansmen at night, police charge.

WILL MARKET BIG SUPPLY OF WOOL

Columbus, Jan. 26.—Prediction that about 4,000,000 pounds of Ohio-produced wool will be marketed during the coming season on the co-operative basis was made here today by Mark J. Smith, wool marketing director of the Ohio Farm Bureau federation.

Arrangements are being made in the various counties for collecting consignments and making shipments to the Columbus warehouse of the Ohio Sheep and Wool Growers Association on a larger scale, director Smith said.

Last year, approximately 2,750,000 pounds of Ohio produced wool was thus marketed, he said. It sold at an average of 44 cents, including all grades.

ACCUSED YOUTHS TO BE ARRAIGNED EARLY SATURDAY

Louis Vandervoort and Alleged Accomplices Will Be Given Hearing

Louis Vandervoort, 20, son of a wealthy fruit farm operator of near Jamestown and his cousin, Walter Bangham, 20, of Port William will be arraigned Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock on charges of first degree murder in connection with the killing of Patrolman Emory McCreight, of Wilmington last February 15.

The hearing will be held in the Common Pleas Court room of the Clinton County Court House originally announced and the youths will be arraigned before Justice of the Peace W. I. Stewart, of Wilmington. Archie Glass, 21, and Frank Moorman, 20, both of near Jamestown will be arraigned at the same time on charges of burglary and larceny. The arraignment is a legal formality and it is assured according to word from Wilmington that all four youths will be bound over to the Clinton County Grand Jury.

Original plans were to arraign the youths in their cells in the Clinton County Jail instead of taking them into the Court Room in order to prevent any possibility of their escape. This plan was rejected later according to announcement from Wilmington Friday. Squire Stewart, who has been ill, is now able to conduct the hearing, which is expected to be brief.

With the arraignment of the youths but one day away, authorities in both Clinton and Greene Counties were practically marking time Friday. Although there is no let-up on the part of authorities in the attempt to obtain further evidence against the four boys, if that is possible, all officials connected with the case believe that the chain of evidence is complete enough for conviction in all cases. All of the youths involved have confessed their parts in the series of robberies and confessed to their knowledge of the shooting which they lay on Vandervoort authorities declare.

It was hinted in official circles Friday that council for the defense would have Vandervoort admit the killings on the stand and plead his case on the basis of insanity. Prosecuting Attorney E. J. West, of Clinton County, in anticipation of such a defense has expressed himself as ready to combat such an attempt on the part of the defense attorneys.

McKIN TO RETURN TO HIS STUDIES

Monroe, La., Jan. 26.—Dr. Bunne M. McKoin, charged with murder in connection with the "hooded mob" terrors of Morehouse parish will return to Baltimore in the near future to resume his medical studies, it was learned here today.

McKoin is at liberty under $5,000 bond, but was restricted to Louisiana by State authorities following his arrest in Baltimore a month ago. This restriction will be lifted, according to reliable information.

McKoin first told of his plans at an impromptu conference with Attorney General Cocco who passed through Monroe en route to his home. The physician asked the attorney general's approval of the trip to Baltimore and the state official said he would interpose no objection.

VESSEL SINKS AND CREW IS DROWNED

Manila, P. I., Jan. 26.—One small ship of the Russian white fleet will never make port.

Word reached here that the straggler from the main section of the fleet sank in a storm off Formosa with all lives lost.

The exact number on board is not known here and cannot be checked by Admiral Stark, commanding the fleet until four other vessels reach port.

FIRE SWEEPS OVER BUCYRUS COMPANY

Bucyrus, O., Jan. 26.—Fire of undetermined origin partially destroyed the South Shop of the Hadfield-Penfield Steel Company here this morning with a loss estimated at $150,000.

Three hundred men are temporarily idle as a result. Manufacture of steel will be resumed in three weeks, it was afterward announced.

PRESIDENT FULLY RECOVERED.

Washington, Jan. 26.—President Harding returned today to his executive offices in the White House, fully recovered from the cold which has kept him in his room for ten days.

STONE HEADS BIG TOBACCO COMBINE

J. C. Stone, President of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association.

J. C. Stone, President of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association, is the actual head of an organization of more than 75,000 farmers in Kentucky, Indiana, Ohio, West Virginia, Tennessee and Missouri. Under his direction, growers, in 1922, sold 129,000,000 pounds of tobacco. Mr. Stone was born in Richmond, Kentucky, January 3, 1878, and was educated at Centre University.

CHICAGO MAYOR THROUGH: WILL NOT RUN AGAIN

Thompson Says in Signed
Statement That He Will
Not Seek Office.

Chicago, Jan. 26.—William Hale Thompson, for eight years mayor of Chicago, threw a bomb shell into political circles today by announcing flatly and definitely that he will not be a candidate for re-election.

"I'm through," the mayor declared.

Thompson, a Republican, has been a power in normally Democratic Chicago since the day he first stepped into the political limelight. He was elected the first time by the staggering majority of 147,477 votes and since then has engaged in a career that has been one of the most turbulent and dramatic in the history of American municipal politics.

Thompson attracted national attention during the war through the Joffe-Viviani incident, and through an interview in which Thompson was quoted as saying Chicago was "the sixth German city in the world."

Thompson always has insisted this statement was garbled. Thompson declined to issue an invitation to Joffe and Viviani of France to visit Chicago when it was suggested to him.

For both of these incidents Thompson was bitterly attacked by the American press.

SENATE STORM OVER ACTIVITY OF BOYDEN NEAR

Foreign Relations Committee Meets to Consider "Information."

Washington, Jan. 26.—The oratorical storm that has been threatening in the Senate over the activities of Col. R. W. Boyden, unofficial American member of the allied reparations commission drew appreciably nearer today when the Senate foreign relations committee met to consider the "ful information" which Secretary of State Hughes laid before the committee in explanation of the American reparations policy.

The committee met at 10:30 o'clock to consider the Hughes report.

It was uncertain whether the irreconcilable group composed of Senators Johnson, Moses, Brandegee and McCormick, would demand Col. Boyden's recall, members declining to commit themselves in advance of the discussion of the report.

Senator Borah, it was understood, planned to again ask the senate to approve of his resolution requesting President Harding to call an international economic conference. The resolution was withdrawn by Borah when it was first introduced as an amendment to the army appropriation bill.

FORMER FRENCH PREMIER AVERS TREATY BROKEN

Barthou Demands Nation Be Declared in Default of All Payments

RIOTS BREAK OUT

French Prepare to Bombard German City in Case of Necessity

Essen, Jan. 26.—With a ring of steel encircling the Ruhr and West-phalian industrial zone, the French today began taking over German railways for military purpose. Absolute military control was imposed upon the Dusseldorf — Recklinhausen — Kettwig—Essen railroad and it was used solely for movement of troops and war materials.

Troops and artillery are being moved throughout the occupied areas while the French and Belgians are constantly strengthening all their military positions. Cavalry patrols have been established in most of the cities as a result of the increase in German rioting during the past thirty-six hours.

Paris, Jan. 26.—Louis Barthou, former French premier, and present chairman of the inter-allied reparations commission, charged today that Germany is "in open rebellion against the Versailles treaty." At a meeting of the reparations commission, M. Barthou, demanded that Germany be declared in general default in all payments and deliveries due under the treaty.

Chairman Barthou asked that discussion of the proposed indemnity moratorium for Germany be postponed because of the nature of developments in the Rhineland and Ruhr. In the meantime France urged that Germany be held to the schedule of payments agreed upon by the allied premiers on May 21, 1921, in London. Under this schedule German indemnity was fixed at approximately $32,000,000,000.

According to the Petit Parisien, there are still between 40,000 and 50,000 Ruhr miners on strike including 30,000 miners employed in collieries of the Thyssen family.

The French and Belgians today put the finishing touches upon the military cordon established along the eastern fringe of the occupied area to prevent coal from being shipped into Germany from the Ruhr.

France is paying a tremendous sum to hold the newly occupied district. In a few days Premier Poincare will go before the chamber of deputies and ask an appropriation of 45,000,000 francs to meet occupational costs up to the end of February.

Minister of Public Works LeTroquer has reported from Dusseldorf that progress is being made in abolishing friction between the various official groups in the Ruhr and that everything will be working smoothly in a few days. The minister is making preparations for a long French stay but officials deny he is arranging for "permanent occupation."

The French foreign office considers that reports of rioting from Essen and Dusseldorf exaggerated. Advances from French military officials called the "riots" a demonstration by rowdy students. French officials do not believe that the adult populations of Dusseldorf and Essen were involved or that the disorders marked the real feelings of the German people.

Paris, Jan. 26.—The inter allied reparations commission today, proclaimed Germany voluntarily in general default of all reparations payments and deliveries. Motion to declare Germany is default was made by Louis Barthou, of France, chairman of the commission Great Britain did not vote.

Dusseldorf, Jan. 26.—Violent anti-French riots, in which several persons were hurt, broke out here again today. The flames of anti-French wrath, which had been smouldering since an angry German mob was dispersed last night, flared up at the sight of French cavalry passing through the streets.

The Germans began to shout epithets and to hurl stones at the French horsemen.

The French fired into the air with their carbines and rode their horses into the crowd dispersing it.

Artillery and machine guns have been placed in the suburbs to bombard the city if the French deem that such a drastic war measure is necessary.

Tanks rumbled through Dusseldorf during the morning en route for the Oberhausen district, where the striking German mine, mill and railway workers have caused much trouble.

Both Belgian and French troops are stationed at Oberhausen. The Belgians have had several collisions with strikers.

XENIA CHURCHES TO UNITE IN FAREWELL TO LOCAL PASTOR

Xenia City Churches will unite at the First Presbyterian Church Sunday, at seven o'clock, for the evening service, honoring the Rev. D. D. Dodds, retiring pastor of that church, who is leaving with his family next week, for his new pastorate in Pittsburgh, Pa.

The Rev. Mr. Dodds will deliver his farewell sermon at the Sunday evening service, after a pastorate of eight years in this city. He and his family, will leave by motor Tuesday for Oakmont, a residential section of Pittsburgh. There he will take up his work as pastor of the Oakmont United Presbyterian Church.

Incident to Dr. Dodds' resignation, the congregation of his church issued the following statements, Friday: "The membership and adherents of the First United Presbyterian Church of Xenia, Ohio do hereby publicly express their appreciation of the faithful services and 'labor of love' rendered them by D. D. Dodds during his nine years' pastorate.

"As a minister of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, he zealously proclaimed the truth and was doctrinal and practical in all his preaching and teaching.

"As teacher of the Men's Bible Class, he was most efficient and was sincerely appreciated by the members of his class.

"Those who regularly attended the Mid-week Prayer Service will miss the spiritual uplift which peculiarly characterized the message of Dr. Dodds as he 'rightly divided the word of truth.'

"As a pastor, he was kind and sympathetic and brought comfort and cheer to the members of his flock in hours of sickness and bereavement.

"Dr. Dodds and his family will be missed from the various organizations of the congregation where they have served in many capacities of leadership.

"The prayers and best wishes of the congregation will follow them wherever in the Providence of God they may be called to labor."

DAUGHERTY GIVEN CLEAN BILL.

Washington, Jan. 26.—The house, by a vote of 204 to 77, approved the action of its judiciary committee in giving Attorney General Daugherty a clean bill of health on the impeachment charges brought against him by Representative Keller (Rep., Minn.). Without a roll call and by practically a unanimous vote, it also adopted a resolution discharging the committee from further consideration of the charges and laying the Keller impeachment resolution on the table.

VETERAN MERCHANT TO BE BURIED ON SATURDAY MORNING

Funeral services for W. Clark Hutchison, Xenia's oldest merchant and senior member of the dry goods firm of Hutchison and Gibney, will be held at the Second United Presbyterian Church at 10:30 o'clock Saturday morning and burial will be made in Woodland Cemetery. Friends may call after four o'clock Friday afternoon at the home, 309 Washington Street.

BUYING POWER OF CROPS INCREASING

St. Louis, Jan. 26.—Farmers' crops last year had a 43 per cent greater purchasing value than the crops of 1921, Assistant Secretary Pugsley of the agricultural department told the Commercial club here during an address on "Wooing Prosperity." The total actual cash value of last year's crops, he said, was 43 per cent greater than in 1921, the increase amounting to approximately $2,000,000,000.

The return of better conditions, Mr. Pugsley declared, is particularly noticeable in the corn, tame grass and cotton sections.

Despite the increase over the preceding year, farmers' crops last year, the club was informed, had a purchasing value about 30 per cent below normal. Declaring that the situation was "still serious," Mr. Pugsley asserted that "prosperity can not permanently return until there is a fair exchange rate between the products of farm labor and capital and the products of factory labor and capital."

STATE'S ATTORNEY ATTACKS KU KLUX KLAN AS LAWLESS

Bastrop, La., Jan. 26.—The open hearing into activities of masked men in Morehouse parish having been concluded, announcement was made that the state militiamen would be withdrawn at an early date.

A statement was issued by Attorney General Cocco that since the advent of the Ku Klux Klan in the parish there had arisen a condition of lawlessness and disorder which had "ripened into a supercession of constituted authorities by the Ku Klux Klan, from which a reign of terror and chaos have resulted."

Judge William Barnett, who is counsel for the members of the Klan identified in the hearing declared that "it was manifest from the very beginning that the real motive behind the prosecution was to convict the Ku Klux Klan in the forum of public opinion."

Attorney General Cocco announced that the evidence gathered at the hearing would be presented to the grand jury "for its consideration and action as soon as we can get a transcript of it."

Judge Fred M. Odom, who presided at the hearing, took exception to certain statements of Judge Barnett and declared they were reflections upon the court and that he expected to issue a formal statement upon the subject.

Leon Jones, a traveling salesman, the last witness to testify at the hearing, declared that his car was disabled on the highway about three-quarters of a mile from Lake La Fourche "some time in August," and that during the night masked men passed him twice, once with and once without "prisoners."

It had been established by previous testimony that Watt Daniel and T. F. Richard, who, kidnapped, were placed in a small truck at the scene of the kidnapping and that they were in the truck when the cavalcade stopped at Collinston. Jones, however, could not say whether it was the night of Aug. 24 that he observed the truck near the lake.

The brief for the grand jury can not be prepared within less than three weeks after the work of transcribing evidence has been completed, which it is believed will require from four to six weeks.

VISITS COUNTY HOME

Dr. Tate, of the State Department visited the Greene County Children's Home Thursday where he examined the eyes of the children and found them all in good condition. In some institutions he has found serious eye trouble among the children and was pleased with the conditions in the local home.

SPURIOUS COINS MADE BY CONVICTS

Paducah, Ky., Jan. 26.—Convicted prohibition law violators confined in the Lyon county jail have been making money during their spare time, according to facts brought out by Edward L. Cooley, secret service operative, which resulted in the arrest of Burnett Stewart and Eugene Robinson and their arraignment here before United States Commissioner A. W. Blackburn on charges of counterfeiting. The men waived preliminary trials. A third warrant, for John Embarger, also a prisoner at the jail, has been issued. A search of the jail revealed spurious coins, mostly quarters, and plaster of paris molds.

CLOSES KINDERGARTEN

Mrs. Charles Davis of North Gallop Street, will open her kindergarten February, instead of next week, unless there is no abatement in the grip situation in the city. The large amount of sickness among the children, has caused the school to be closed, and it is hoped that a sufficient number will be recovered by that date, to warrant opening the classes.

CONVICTED IN THREE MINUTES.

Cleveland, Jan. 26.—It required a jury only three minutes to convict George Johnson on charges of guilty of assault to rob. This is the shortest time a jury ever took to consider a case here, Prosecutor Edward C. Stanton said. Johnson was one of four men who attempted to rob the Carnegie Drug company here several weeks ago. One of the bandits was shot and killed and Johnson wounded by the police.

NEW LAMP BURNS

94% AIR

Beats Electric or Gas

A new oil lamp that gives an amazingly brilliant, soft, white light, even better than gas or electricity, has been tested by the U. S. Government and 35 leading universities and found to be superior to 10 ordinary oil lamps. It burns without odor, smoke or noise—no pumping up, is simple, clean, safe. Burns 94% air and 6% common kerosene (coal oil).

The inventor, E. A. Johnson, 609 W. Lake St., Chicago, Ill., is offering to send a lamp on 10 day's FREE trial, or even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him today for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency, and without experience or money make $250 to $500 per month.

CREAM CLEARS A STUFFED-UP HEAD

Instantly Opens Every Air Passage—Clears Throat, Too

If your nostrils are clogged and your head is stuffed because of nasty catarrh or a cold, apply a little pure, antiseptic cream into your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage, soothing and healing swollen, inflamed membranes and you get instant relief.

Try this. Get a small bottle of Fly's Cream Balm at any drug store. Your clogged nostrils open right up; your head is clear; no more hawking or snuffling. Count fifty. All the stuffiness, dryness, struggling for breath is gone. You feel fine.

A TOUGH SITUATION

"My wife and four children were dependent on me for their living. My stomach and liver trouble of five years had made me dependent as no medicine seemed to help me and I was gradually wasting away. It was a tough situation. My cousin in Columbus wrote me about having taken Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and advised me to try it. I am now feeling better than for fifteen years." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Sayre and Hemphill and druggists everywhere.

THE SECRET OF SOUND SLEEP.

If you want to get an eager response out of the average man or woman, just say solicitously, "How did you sleep last night?" You can then devote yourself to your own thoughts, merely emitting an occasional murmur of sympathy, for few indeed are the persons who do not know what it is to wrestle with the Angel of Sleep, and to find him—or is it her?—a very refractory sort of angel.

Some years ago, Dr. Boris Sidis—who is a neurologist, psychologist, and various other kinds of scientific "ologists"—made an elaborate study of sleep. He is a native of Russia; came to this country when twenty years old, and lives at Portsmouth, N. H. He has given unusual attention to the cure of Insomnia. He says: "I found there were three conditions favorable to sleep: They were the limitation of voluntary movement, the limitation of the field of consciousness, and monotony.

"The first two sound very scientific. We professional men are inclined to use long words because we like to show off our vocabulary. But the limitation of voluntary movement really means keeping perfectly still; not turning and tossing about. And the limitation of the field of consciousness means shutting the mind against outside impressions.

"I found that by observing the three conditions mentioned I could put myself into a state of deep natural sleep at almost any time.

What are the thoughts that occupy the mind of a person who lies awake at night? Much of the time, of course, he is thinking about going to sleep; fearing he won't, and worrying because he doesn't. The rest of the time he is thinking about the same things that have occupied his thoughts during the day.

"The man keeps on thinking about his business problems. The woman thinks about her domestic cares. If people are not well, or believe they are not well, they think about their health.

"Now, here is a very important fact: When we use a nerve cell, we exhaust some of its stored-up energy. When we allow it to rest, it stores up new energy in place of what has been used. Mental fatigue comes through a continuous use of the same group of cells without giving them a chance to renew their store of energy.

"You probably are disappointed because I don't tell you things to do about eating and bathing and exercise, or give you a lot of schemes for counting, or tell you to count sheep jumping over a fence, or something like that. Most people want to use 'trick plays' of this sort. But they are fundamentally valueless, because they do not get at the root of the matter.

"Indeed, they are more likely to prevent sleep than to induce it. The trouble is that they demand concentration of the attention, whereas it should be dissipated instead. You may get some purely temporary benefit from them, because they keep you from thinking about the worries of the day, and so let the brain cells which are fatigued have a chance to rest. But you can accomplish the same result in a better way by relaxing the mind and body. And this will give permanent benefit, as well as better temporary results.

"At first, you will have to compel yourself to keep still. You will think that you simply must move your head, if only an inch or two. You will have to restrain yourself, by an effort of the will, for several minutes. But then you will find that your inclination to make that particular movement has passed."

U. S. MAIL IN 1850.

Benjamin Franklin, that delightful philosopher and astute statesman, laid the foundation of the present postal system of the United States. All the earlier postal history of the 13 American colonies radiates about him as the central figure. Franklin first served as postmaster of Philadelphia. He ran the office very much like a fourth class office in the smaller community life of this country is managed today. He owned a weekly newspaper and the post office was operated in conjunction with this publication.

Franklin was named deputy postmaster general of the British colonies of America in the year 1753. Immediately his troubles began. Dispatching and delivering letters throughout the thickly wooded and sparsely populated areas in these pioneer times was a difficult task and there was little to encourage him. Then the mails were transported by couriers and six weeks were consumed in making the excursion from Philadelphia to Boston. During the winter months the couriers ventured out only twice in every 30 days. In most instances travelers made much faster time than the mail couriers along the same roads so that the postal system in the middle of the 18th century was unreliable as well as precarious.

UNITED STATES TRADE WITH CANADA.

Often it is claimed by free traders that a protective tariff will injure if not destroy our trade with foreign countries, because "no nation can buy unless it sells." It is claimed by the theorist that an adequate protective tariff (called "high" by the enemies of protection) will make it impossible for the United States to sell to foreign countries in any large measure because foreign countries cannot sell us; they are blocked by the protective tariff.

If this is a general truth, then it must apply to any and all foreign countries with which we trade. Let us apply it to Canada. The Fordney-McCumber protective tariff has been in operation about three months or less.

In October, 1922, Canada imported from the United States about $42,900,000 in merchandise; in October, 1921, Canada imported from the United States about $42,300,000 in merchandise. This was more in October, 1922, under a protective tariff than in October, 1921, under a low tariff called free trade.

In October, 1922, Canada exported to the United States more than $32,800,000 in merchandise; in October, 1921, exported about $28,400,000 in merchandise. Canada exported to the United States more merchandise under protection than under free trade.

In other words, our trade with Canada was greater under protection than under free trade. This demonstrates that protection does not interfere with foreign trade.

Another free trade theory exploded!

1903--Twenty Years Ago--1923

The People's Gas and Electric Light Company of Xenia, has the plans now well under way for the improvements in the plant here, which will make it second to none for a city of this size. The company has decided to combine the electric light and gas plants and both will be on the site which the gas plant now occupies. While the new McKinley school building is almost completed and the work upon it could be rushed through in a couple of weeks, it is not likely that the building will be occupied this school year. The County Commissioners were in the western part of the county yesterday looking into the matter of a change on the line of the D. and X. traction road, on the premises of Squire Ferguson. Mr. Lester Barnes who has been spending several weeks on a visit at Cottage Hill, Florida, is expected home tomorrow. Mrs. Barnes will return later.

A great many women write to me complaining of the ridges on their finger nails, and I don't believe very many of them try hard to get rid of these lines.

For, of course, it can be done no matter how badly the nails may look. If the ridges are very sharp and have existed a long time, it will take years. But it's worth the effort, especially as a great deal of improvement will be noticed from the first few treatments.

These treatments are as simple as can be.

First of all, give the nails plenty of oil to nourish them and to soften them. Wear gloves at night, over hands smeared liberally with oil or cream. Protect the hands with rubber gloves when dishwashing and with canvas gloves when sweeping. After a week of this (a form of protection which, however should go on all the time) begin the other part of the treatments.

Soak the nails in warm soapy water, file and trim as far as ordinary manicure. Take a fine piece of pumice stone, wet and rub with a little soap. Go over the surface of each bad nail, wearing down the ridges of the nail, and paying no attention to the scratchy surface you produce.

Wash again, dab with vaseline or olive oil or cold cream, wipe dry. Then take a buffer and some good polishing powder, and rub and rub. You'll rub off all the scratches, leaving the nails slightly less ridged than before and much healthier for all this friction.

Do this every week or so. Use plenty of oil every day and you'll not

does wonders for chafed or irritated skins

"My doctor told me about it and if I couldn't get another jar I wouldn't give this one up for anything."

That is how many people regard Resinol Ointment. It is especially recommended for eczema and other itching skin troubles, but it is also excellent as a general household remedy for burns, scalds, chafings, cold sores, pimples, insect bites, etc.

Resinol Soap and Resinol Shaving Stick contain the Resinol properties and no home should be without these products.

At all druggists.

MEMOIRS.

All my friends are writing books treating their misspent lives, telling tales about their cooks and their uncles and their wives; memoirs writers come in troops, writing stories of their coops; modesty will loop the loops, if this memoir survives. Ten cent people buy some ink and indulge in pompous prose, telling of the dope they drink and the color of their hose; of their journeys far and near, of the kind of cars they steer, of adventures making beer where the wild budweiser grows. Silly women take their pens and relate in great detail narratives of setting hens, and of doings flat and stale; gossip of a frowsy past makes the reader cry, "Dodgast! These punk memoirs are the last I shall read while out of jail!" Every gent his pen will grab, since we have the memoirs itch, though his life may be as drab as a mudhole in a ditch; though he has no writing skill, endless pages he will fill with his egotistic swill, memoirs readers to bewitch. Every delegate embarks on the moaning memoirs tide, and we are such easy marks that no writer is denied; and we tread the pavement stones to blow in our hard-earned bones for "The Book of Jackass Jones," by all dealers now supplied.

RECOGNIZE YOUR OWN LUCK

We will never understand luck very well until we recognize that it isn't something that is given—"with out money and without price."

Luck is something that you have to earn as you do your bread.

I have never heard a person of as lucky without smiling to myself. And I have usually said to myself: "Well, I am of the opinion that he is a worker."

For work is in reality the tree that bears the fruit of luck.

Don't waste your time bemoaning your luck. That's why you have none.

Luck, after all, is pretty fairly distributed in this workaday world.

The luckiest man isn't the one who makes the most money or accumulates the greatest fame.

Nothing like that. The lucky man is he who discovered most about himself—and used that knowledge to the highest degree for the benefit of others.

I have a friend who seems to have the ability to make everybody love him.

He is an inspiration to me. But you see, I know the secret! He makes it his business to love other people. And now he is making much money—and he is famous, which are mere incidents.

That's the way luck works.

Of course luck doesn't function all the time. Neither does the apple tree, as far as fruit is concerned. A man wouldn't amount to much with a sea of luck to swim in all the time.

The best idea is to forget luck altogether. Just go right on with what you have, and do your work to the best of your ability.

Luck won't forget you. Because he likes people!

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE BEING CONDUCTED

The Rev. E. W. Moyer, pastor of the Mt. Zion Reformed Church, is leading the drive among the members of his congregation for an increase in attendance at the church, each Sunday.

A chart in the Sunday school room of the church registers the attendance in the form of a graph, showing for the last four months the progress of the campaign.

In September, the average was 85, and on the 24th of that month, the highest was reached with 112. October was the banner month, with an average attendance of 102, twice going above the hundred mark in attendance. October 22, 130 were present and on the 29th of that month 159 members attended. In November, the hundred mark was reached only twice, with 104 attending November 12, with a one hundred per cent attendance November 19. The average attendance for that month was 91.

The school attained an average attendance of 87 in December, going over the 100 mark once during the month, the high mark being 123. An attendance of 100 or more was reached six Sundays out of the 18 during the last three months. The total enrollment of the Sunday School scholars as reported to classes is listed as 132, including the cradle roll and home department. During January the 100 mark has not been reached, this goal being set as an average attendance.

Sunday morning, at 10:30 o'clock, the Rev. Mr. Moyer will preach on "Justification by Faith." A Junior talk, "The Story of the Broken Cup," will also be given during the morning service. Afternoon worship will be held at 2:30 o'clock.

At the annual joint Consistory meeting of Beaver Creek charge, held Tuesday, action was taken to make the change in the hours of preaching from afternoon to morning, February 15. The usual time heretofore was to change on the first Sunday in February.

"Get Ourselves," instead of "Get the Other Fellow," has been suggested as a slogan in the attendance contest. The last year's report of the church shows that the attendance is about 50 per cent of the enrollment of the Sunday School.

MRS. O. W. BLAIR DIES LATE THURSDAY

Mrs. Mary Estelle Blair, wife of O. W. Blair, died at her home, 85 Walnut Street, Thursday night at 11:30 o'clock, after a lingering illness. She has been ill for the past four years, suffering from tuberculosis, her condition becoming serious within the last two weeks.

Mrs. Blair was born at Carr's Creek, Rock Bridge County, Virginia, her marriage to Mr. Blair taking place

Feb. 4, 1911. Besides her husband she is survived by two children, Estelle and Jesse. Her mother, Mrs. Ettie Myers, and three brothers, Edward and John Mays, of Xenia, and James Mays of Lexington, Va., also survive.

Mrs. Blair was a member of Pride of Xenia Council, No. 140 Daughter of America Lodge. Funeral arrangements have not been completed and will be announced later.

Styles BY LENORE

This little costume is the sort of thing that makes a grown-up conscious of her age.

It belongs exclusively to extreme youth. The jaunty little coat is of gray—oh, a very light silvery gray, and the skirt a combination of the gayest red imaginable with hairlines of yellow and blue. A simple white sport shirt of cotton or crepe de chine is worn underneath the coat.

A sleeveless jumper in orchid flannel with a long sleeved guimpe of white poplin, worn with a black wind-sor tie, is another effective frock shown in a Fifth Avenue shop.

Equally practical but more decorative, is a dark blue sleeveless frock with an applique of cut-out poppies running down the left side.

The home dressmaker will find chintz and cretonne patterns very suggestive for this type of ornamentation.

HIRAM H. FAWCETT CALLED BY DEATH

Hiram H. Fawcett, 73, well known farmer of the New Jasper neighborhood, died at his home south of New Jasper, Thursday night at 11:30 o'clock. Mr. Fawcett had been ailing for several months from heart trouble. Death was caused by the latter affliction and pneumonia.

Mr. Fawcett was born near Paintersville, December 15, 1850, and had resided in this county all of his life. His marriage to Miss Elizabeth Smith took place September 1, 1870, who survives, with the following children, Mrs. Ollie M. Spahr, of near New Jasper, Mrs. James Jones of near Xenia, Fred Fawcett of near New Jasper, and Mrs. Archie Peterson, of near Cedarville. Four grandchildren, and seven great grandchildren, also survive Mr. Fawcett's death.

He was a member of the New Jasper M. E. Church, and the Jamestown I. O. O. F. Lodge.

Funeral services will be conducted from the late home Monday afternoon at one o'clock, with interment at Woodland cemetery.

White-of-Egg in Calumet a Vital Element Most Baking Powders Lack

Don't use a leavener that does not contain white-of-egg. When you do you take chances—you run the risk of spoiling your bakings.

CALUMET The Economy BAKING POWDER

contains a small amount of white-of-egg. This makes it possible for representatives of the company to test it frequently for leavening strength—right on the dealer's counter. Nothing but absolutely fresh stock is permitted to remain on the dealers' shelves. It must always be up to the high Calumet standard.

Remember the white-of-egg in Calumet protects the success of your bakings. It is the economical positive bake-day aid and its sale is 2 1/2 times as much as that of any other brand.

A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 ounces. Some baking powders come in 12 ounce instead of 16 ounce cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

IF RHEUMATIC BEGIN ON SALTS

Says We Must Keep Feet Dry, Avoid Exposure, Eat No Sweets.

Stay off the damp ground, avoid exposure, keep feet dry, eat no sweets of any kind for a while, drink lots of water and above all take a spoonful of Jad Salts occasionally to help keep down uric and toxic acids.

Rheumatism is caused by poison toxins, called acids, which are generated in the bowels and absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine. The pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly, cold weather, the skin pores are closed, thus forcing the kidneys to do double work; they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate this poison, which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles, causing stiffness, soreness and pain, called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is helpful to neutralize acidity, remove body waste also to stimulate the kidneys, thus helping to rid the blood of these rheumatic poisons.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice combined with Epsom and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism.

ATTENS BAR MEETING

Attorney W. L. Miller was in attendance at the meeting of the Ohio State Bar Association, in session in Columbus, Thursday night. He attended the meeting as a member of the committee on Judicial Administration and Legal Reform, and proposed an amendment to one of the state statutes.

Although Greene County authorities believe they have in their possession the automatic pistol with which Patrolman Elvas Matthews of the Xenia Police Department was killed December 21, the promised tests as to the firing qualities of the two pistols being held, have not yet been conducted. Sheriff Morris Sharp, who returned Thursday night from Mansfield where he had taken two prisoners, was busy Friday so that the tests could not be held.

Wilmington authorities Friday uncovered the fact that Vandervoort used two aliases. He received mail at the Postoffice in Washington, C. H., under the name of Harmon H. Kalk-er, it has been charged and at the post office in Port William under the name of Harmon H. Wallace. A package sent to Wilmington by express was addressed to Harmon H. Wallace and a card of notification to call for the package was sent to Harmon H. Wallace at Port William and found later in Vandervoort's effects in Washington, C. H. The package was never delivered but was returned to the sender. Express office attaches at Wilmington refused to tell the name of the sender on the basis that it is a company rule not to disclose such information. Vandervoort never received the package, but Wilmington authorities believe it contained firearms.

Former Prosecuting Attorney S. L. Gregory of Wilmington, in anti-air cases in New York state view Thursday, said that he had always had grave doubts as to the guilt of Roy "Mack" McKinney, who was sentenced to the penitentiary for life for the murder of McCreight. "Notwithstanding the verdict of the jury there was such a serious doubt in my mind as to McKinney's guilt that in making my official report to the authorities at Columbus I said to them that there was a grave and serious doubt as to his being guilty of the crime of which he was convicted," Gregory said.

The prosecution in McKinney's trial was assisted by another former Prosecutor, Joe Doan, who is now one of the attorneys engaged to defend Vandervoort. It is expected that efforts will soon be made to have McKinney released. Jim Bill Reno who has been held in Wilmington a year awaiting trial on the same charge, is also expected to be released.

CEDARVILLE HIGH SCHOOL CLOSES

Cedarville High School has joined the list of Greene County schools at present during the grip epidemic, stopping classes Tuesday noon, the vacation to last until the amount of sickness among the pupils abates.

Cedarville College is closed for the remainder of the week, during examinations at the close of the first semester.

Antioch College, Yellow Springs, has not been struck by the grip epidemic and has continued regular classes.

OLD TAGS UNTIL MARCH 1.

FOUR GAMES ARE SCHEDULED HERE FRIDAY EVENING

Basketball patrons at Central High School will be afforded the biggest court menu this season Friday night, when four games will be played on the evening's program, all for the single admission price.

In order to crowd all of the contests into the events without delaying the big game, the first game will start at 6:30 o'clock and will be played between the sixth grade teams of Central building and McKinley.

The second game on the program is the clash between the Clifton High School Freshman five and the Central High Freshman team of this city. The game postponed from last week between the Greek Wops of Wittenberg College, Springfield and the South Side Merchants, a Municipal League entry, will furnish the semi-wrap up directly preceding the main mill between Xenia and Piqua High teams.

When the blue and white court combination takes the floor Friday night it will be the first time Coach Earl Burger's pets have been trotted into the coliseum to do battle with a foe for two weeks the locals having a vacation enforced by illness last week that was occasioned by the cancellation of the Greenfield McClain game. The local athletes should be in the pink for the battle with the Piquas which will get under way about 8:15 o'clock.

MRS. LAURA MITMAN DIES ON THURSDAY

Mrs. Laura Mitman, 70, formerly of Osborn, died Thursday evening at the home of her son, O. P. Mitman, 135 East McClellan avenue, Springfield, pneumonia being the cause of death, Mrs. Mitman taking ill Wednesday, her condition becoming critical over night.

Mrs. Mitman was a member of the Fourth Lutheran church in Springfield and for many years was a member of the Lutheran church in Osborn. She is survived by one son, O. P. Mitman, Springfield, two grandchildren, and one brother, William Bryan, of Springfield.

Brief funeral services will be held at the late residence in Springfield, Saturday afternoon at one o'clock, and the body will be taken to the Osborn Lutheran Church where services will be held at 2:30 o'clock. Burial will be made in the Osborn cemetery.

Cedarville College Notes

Grip has found several victims in the college. Among the most serious are, Miss Brand, Bee Walton, Donald Wickersham, Harold Myers, Marston Hunt and Florence Smith.

County Superintendent of Schools H. C. Aultman visited the college for the benefit of the teachers' training class, last week. He also gave an interesting talk to the student body during the chapel exercises.

Hubert Smith visited Oren Smith at his home near Wilmington over the last week end.

Richard L. Garnett, of Glasgow, Ky., student of the O. S. U. Law course, visited G. La Cide Markle over the last week end. They were together in the Marine Corps during the War. They were entertained at the Davis home.

The second semester of Cedarville college opens next Wednesday morning at 9:30. Registration will take place, Tuesday, January 30 and Wednesday, Jan. 31. A number of new students will enter. Rev. G. A. Scott, D. D., pastor of the First M. E. Church, Xenia, will make the opening address of the semester, Thursday, Feb. 1. All are invited.

President McChesney went to Waverly, Ohio, Thursday where he will make two addresses to the Teachers' Institute of Pike County on Friday. From Waverly, he will go to Lafayette, Ind., where he will preach morning and evening in the Central Presbyterian Church next Sunday.

MRS. MARY A. TILLOTSON, COLUMBUS, O.

Recovers from Long Illness Due to Stomach Trouble and Rheumatism by Taking Ka-di-ok.

"I hardly believe I would be alive today if it was not for Ka-di-ok. It has practically given me a new lease of life," says Mrs. Mary A. Tillotson, a well-known Columbus woman, residing at 431 E. Livingston Avenue, to the Ka-di-ok expert a few days ago. Further continuing, Mrs. Tillotson said: "For over a year I was laid up with stomach trouble and rheumatism and for several months lived entirely on a milk or bread-and-milk diet, as I could not keep anything else on my stomach; I was in such a bad condition that I could scarcely walk across the room. Sometimes there would be large knots in my limbs, caused by rheumatism, which caused the intense pain and suffering. I had no idea of getting better, but acting on the advice of a friend I was induced to start taking Ka-di-ok. It was certainly a wonderful thing for me when I did so. After a few weeks' treatment I am now able to eat any food that appeals to me and have no distress afterwards. I am getting stronger every day and am now doing my housework. I recently walked several blocks, something I have not been able to do in months, as I have been practically bed-ridden. Ka-di-ok is the finest remedy in the world and has made me feel like a new woman."

Ka-di-ok can be obtained at Sayre & Hemmhill's Drug Store, Xenia.

BRINGING UP FATHER

THE CHEERFUL CHERUB

It worries me when I have talked, Expanding views both long and wise, To see that hunted, glassy look steal slowly o'er my hearer's eyes.

CEDARVILLE

On account of the prevalent epidemic of gripe the schools were closed Tuesday at noon for the remainder of the week. At that time 25 per cent of the students were absent.

Miss Helen Somers has gone to her home in Republic, O., where she will spend a few days.

The Cedarville High School Basketball team will meet the Lawrenceville quintettes, Friday evening on the local floor.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hamilton have as their guest, the latter's cousin Mrs. John Funk of Washington C. H., is spending the week here.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ritenour attended the funeral of Mr. Ritenour's grandmother, Mrs. Ruth Hutsler in Grape Grove Tuesday. Mrs. Hutsler was a pioneer resident of that vicinity being ninety-three years of age.

Miss Bee Walton will leave her studies in Cedarville College this week to take the position as teacher in one of the rural schools in Spring Valley Township.

"KITCHEN CABINET" ORCHESTRA TO PLAY

A organization, known as "The Kitchen Cabinet Orchestra" will be presented in this city, in the near future by the members of the Daughters of Rebekah, according to the announcement of lodge members, Friday.

The "orchestra" will be composed of local people, lodge members and others possessing musical talent, who will be trained to present a clever

IF SKIN BREAKS OUT AND ITCHES APPLY SULPHUR

Just the moment you apply Mentho-Sulphur to an itching, burning or broken out skin, the itching stops and healing begins, says a noted skin specialist. This sulphur preparation made into a pleasant cold cream, gives such a quick relief, even to fiery eczema, that nothing has ever been found to take its place.

Because of its germ destroying properties, it quickly subdues the itching, cools the irritation and heals the eczema right up, leaving a clear, smooth skin in place of ugly eruptions, rash, pimples or roughness.

You do not have to wait for improvement. It quickly shows. You can get a little of Rowies Mentho-Sulphur at any drug store.

is to be worn with the popular round "Peter Pan" collar and cuffs. It is jade green with cord and tassels of the same shade.

Knitted Shetland Floss Slip-On: (Vicunda or Iceland may be used instead of the Shetland if desired). Light ounces of the wool, one pair of number four ivory knitting needles. Cast on 84 stitches, knit 12 ribs (24 rows). Twenty-fifth row: Knit 1, * yarn over the needle, knit 1, * repeat from star to star across the entire row. Twenty-sixth row, K 1, * drop the loop, K 1, across. Then knit three ribs, (6 rows). These seven rows make the pattern throughout the sweater. Knit in pattern for 17 inches. Increase one stitch at each end of needle every other row five times (ten stitches), then add to ten stitches at each end of needle six times (120 stitches, or 60 stitches at each side); knit five inches (always keeping your pattern.)

Next Row: Knit 86 stitches, * knit 2, purl 2, * repeat from star to star for 42 stitches, knit 86 stitches.

Next Row: Knit 86 stitches, * knit 2, purl 2, * repeat from star to star for 42 stitches, knit 86 stitches, repeat these two rows till you have knitted ten rows.

Next Row: Knit 86 stitches, and slip on a stitch holder, knit 2, purl 2, knit 2, bind off 30 stitches, knit 2, purl 2, knit 2, knit 86 stitches.

Next Row: Knit 86 stitches, knit 2, purl 2, knit 2.

Next Row: Knit 2, purl 2, knit 2, knit 86 stitches, repeat these two rows twice. Make other shoulder to correspond.

Now cast on 30 stitches, to take the place of the ones bound off in back, and knit 2, purl 2, for 42 stitches; knit 86 stitches for ten more rows. Knit four inches bind off four stitches at each end of needle at times till 60 stitches are bound off. Decrease one stitch at each end of needle every other row five times and make front correspond with back at under arm.

Cuffs: Pick up stitches and knit 2, purl 2 for three and one-half inches. Waist Cord: Take five strands of yarn and twist, double back and tie about three inches from each end, to form the tassel.

This is a very graceful model suitable for young women of almost any age.

DOREEN DISPUTES A BILL

CHAPTER 88

The next morning before he left for the studio, Walter called the superintendent and ordered strong bolts put on both outside doors. He insisted I must rest, was very loving and tender with me, claiming I had been wonderfully brave and so on.

Mrs. Page too was unusually gentle said she should probably have fainted at once, or done something as foolish.

I felt that it would be almost worth going through my fright again to be so considered.

An officer came and questioned me. They had found a man prowling about not far from the apartment, had held him.

I could tell them little as the man's face was covered, and aside from his height and that he wore dark clothes, and a slouch hat, my information was of no assistance.

For two or three days Walter's loving care was evident, then he drifted into his old ways.

We ceased talking about the burglar and I once more had reason to think he was devoting himself to Vashiti Vernon.

I was looking over the monthly bills. When I opened a florist's bill I was amazed at the amount. We had had a few flowers in the house, small orders for table and so on. But nothing that could make such a sum.

I went through the items, and found roses, orchids, and so on charged in several instances.

I called at the florist's and told him there was some mistake, that he had charged me with flowers I had not ordered. He got out his book and said:

"Mr. Page ordered such and such flowers. Let me see, they were delivered at the Ritz Hotel." The bill was right after all. I did not pay it. I told him I would send a check. I had no idea what I should do, whether I should speak to Walter or not; could not think with the man's eyes upon me in quizzical fashion.

"Mr. Page forgot to mention sending them," I said, feeling the florist was smiling knowingly.

"That's all right, Mrs. Page. It often happens."

As I walked slowly away I thought of that last remark of his:

"It often happens."

Did so many other married men send flowers to women? And did other wives go to the florists only to be informed of this fact.

For two days I pondered as to whether I should say anything to Walter. Then I concluded to do so. I waited until we were alone and said:

"Walter, I wish you'd look over this florist's bills. It's out of all reason. We have had very few flowers this month."

His face flushed.

"I have ordered some for the studio," he said after a moment. "I'll take it and have it straightened out."

"That isn't necessary!" I would pe-haps have said nothing had he not tried to parry the issue, to deceive me. "I have seen the florist, he looked up each item for me. Those marked went to the Ritz, and were ordered by you."

Walter turned white with anger.

"What if I did send a few flowers to Vashiti? That's my business!"

Nothing to have a wife who goes snooping around making a fuss to a tradesman because her husband orders a few flowers!"

"I didn't make any fuss, Walter. I thought he had charged us with things we had not bought. You have been very generous with Miss Vernon." I couldn't help that last; is just slipped out.

"Why shouldn't I be? She is very generous with her time; gives me as many sittings as I wish—and no complaints. Not a professional model either. Most society women and girls aren't dependable; say they will come and don't."

"You needn't explain so elaborately I understand." I said coldly. "I'll send a check as usual."

"That's right! Speak in that hurt tone."

One would think to hear you I had no right to spend my own money." He was working himself into a rage, when fortunately his mother came in.

"Am I intruding?" She looked from Walter's red eyes to mine, which I knew was pale.

"No indeed!" I said quickly. While Walter, with a stifled exclamation left the room.

'GERMANY IN OPEN REBELLION'

DONAHEY URGES A BIPARTISAN BOARD IN OHIO

Governor Sends Second
Message to State
Assembly

PENAL INSTITUTIONS Executive Deals Entirely With Ohio Prison System In Statement

Columbus, Jan. 26.—In his second message to the general assembly Governor Donahey recommended the restoration of control and management of the 23 state penal, correctional and charitable institutions, caring for 25,000 wards of the state, to a bipartisan board, abolishing the one man welfare director control plan established two years ago under the Davis reorganization bill.

The message dealt entirely with state institution control, and particularly with the state's prison system. He recommended that the old penitentiary in Columbus be retained as a clearing house for men convicted of felonies; that hardened and irredeemable prisoners be retained there and others put to work for the state at the London prison farm, producing food for the state institutions and making road building materials.

Enlargement of the state's brick plant and building of a cement factory for the extensive manufacture of road building materials, the governor contended, would not only help defeat the present high cost of roads, but would solve the "idle house" problem at the penitentiary, which he characterized as a "disgrace to the state" and "a menace to society."

Referring to the agitation for a new state institution for the care of the feeble-minded, the governor said while this might be advisable before long the state should first bring the Orient farm, a branch of the state institution for feeble-minded, to the capacity originally intended by building new cottages there.

In urging a return to the board of control plan for the state institutions, which was established by Governor Harmon in 1911, Governor Donahey gave it as his opinion that no one person possesses all the qualifications necessary and that "the best solution lies in the restoration of a bipartisan board of members appointed for definite terms, of which not more than one is to expire in any one year."

"Under such a plan," said the governor in his message, "there would always be an experienced membership on the board to carry on a continuity of policy and to stabilize possible caprices of new members."

Other Changes Sought.

The governor also advocated restoring to such a board the purchasing department for state institutions, which was transferred to the state purchasing agent when the Davis bill was passed. This plan, the governor declared, has proven "most unsatisfactory to state institutions."

Another difficulty with the present welfare director system, the governor declared, is that plans and specifications for institutional buildings are drafted by the state highway department instead of the department of welfare and that contracts for these buildings are awarded by the highway department, when they should be under the control of the welfare department. Construction of institutional cottages under the present plan, he said, costs three times as much as it did under the old board of administration.

Another recommendation which the governor said has been endorsed by all agencies familiar with the subject is that the state board of pardons and paroles be composed of members who can give all their time to the work instead of having a superintendent of pardons and paroles with two other members who are employees of the department of welfare and have other duties. He urged re-establishment of a bipartisan board of two members, each to devote all of his time to the study of applications for pardons and paroles.

The governor urged that the work of eliminating fire hazards, which has been started since he assumed office, be continued in the interests of thousands of helpless unfortunates locked in buildings which are fire hazards.

PAYS SUPREME PENALTY.

Columbus, Jan. 26.—Making no statement concerning his crime, Ludie Clifford Shelton, 32, colored, met death in the electric chair at the penitentiary at 12:08 o'clock this morning. He was convicted of murdering Patrolman William H. Dieters at Cincinnati, August 28, 1918. Rev. Father Kelly, Catholic chaplain at the penitentiary, walked with Shelton to the death chair. One application of electricity was sufficient to cause Shelton's death.

Klan Members Are Arrested

WOMAN MAIMED BY MASKED FLOGGERS

Mrs. R. H. Harrison and daughter

Mrs. R. H. Harrison, of Goose Creek, Texas, has arrived in Houston to seek justice and protection from the Federal Government. Mrs. Harrison and R. A. Armand, a friend, who was visiting her on the night of January 5, were taken from her home by masked marauders and brutally horsewhipped. In addition, her hair, described as strikingly beautiful, was cropped off close to the scalp, necessitating the wearing of a wig. Mrs. Harrison is shown here with her daughter, Bonnie Lee.

POLICE OF NEW YORK NAB EIGHT AFTER MEETING

Charged With Having
Liquor and Carrying Black
Jacks by Officers

UNDER FALSE NAME

Session Held in Traffic
Court — Cops Kept
Long Watch

New York, Jan. 26.—Eight members of the Ku Klux Klan are being held by the police today following the first arrests made here at the conclusion of a Klan meeting. The men are not charged with being Klan members but one of them is charged with having liquor in his possession and two others with carrying black jacks.

The men were subjected to a lengthy grilling by Lieutenant Gegan of the bomb squad, who ordered them held pending further investigation.

The police intimated that the grand klegale of the state also attended the meeting but escaped in an automobile according to the police.

The gathering was held in Brooklyn and had been announced merely as a meeting of the "marine circle". Gegan, however, says he has information to prove that it was a gathering of Klan No. 2 of New York.

Those arrested are: Ellsworth B. Moss, John F. Collins, W. P. Simmons, advertising manager, Underwood typewriter company, John MacDonald, Robert Fisher, Thomas Jones, Charles Mulford and C. A. Clark.

The arrests were the result of a keen watch by members of the bomb squad upon members of the "invisible empire". Gegan said his men had been on the trail of the klansmen for weeks and when the grand klegale of New York state began to speak one of his men was in the audience in full Klan regalia.

The meeting had been held in the traffic court, a place rented to labor organizations.

The "marine circle," according to Gegan, was simply the name given by the klans to hire the court to hold their midnight meetings.

Brooklyn Klan No. 8, according to the police, have made traffic court its headquarters for more than a year, using assumed names to secure its rental. That meeting place, police say, was one of the safest they could possibly have found for very few would think of hunting the klansmen in a court.

From the very bench from which judges handed down decisions during the day the king klegale gave his orders to the white robed klansmen at night, police charge.

WILL MARKET BIG SUPPLY OF WOOL

Columbus, Jan. 26.—Prediction that about 4,000,000 pounds of Ohio-produced wool will be marketed during the coming season on the cooperative basis was made today by Mark J. Smith, wool marketing director of the Ohio Farm Bureau federation.

Arrangements are being made in the various counties for collecting consignments and making shipments to the Columbus warehouse of the Ohio Sheep and Wool Growers Association on a large scale, director Smith said.

Last year, approximately 2,750,000 pounds of Ohio produced wool was thus marketed, he said. It sold at an average of 44 cents, including all grades.

ACCUSED YOUTHS TO BE ARRAIGNED EARLY SATURDAY

Louis Vandervoort and Alleged Accomplices Will Be Given Hearing

Louis Vandervoort, 20, son of a wealthy fruit farm operator of near Jamestown and his cousin, Walter Bingham, 20, of Port William will be arraigned Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock on charges of first degree murder in connection with the killing of Patrolman Emory McCreight, of Wilmington last February 15.

The hearing will be held in the Common Pleas Court room of the Clinton County Court House originally announced and the youths will be arraigned before Justice of the Peace W. I. Stewart, of Wilmington. Archie Glass, 21, and Frank Moorhead, 20, both of near Jamestown, will be arraigned at the same time on charges of burglary and larceny. The arraignment is a legal formality and it is assured according to word from Wilmington that all four youths will be bound over to the Clinton County Grand Jury.

Original plans were to arraign the youths in their cells in the Clinton County Jail instead of taking them into the Court Room in order to prevent any possibility of their escape. This plan was rejected later according to announcement from Wilmington Friday. Squire Stewart, who has been ill, is now able to conduct the hearing, which is expected to be brief.

With the arraignment of the youths but one day away, authorities in both Clinton and Greene Counties were practically marking time Friday. Although there is no let-up on the part of authorities in the attempt to obtain further evidence against the four boys, if that is possible, all officials connected with the case believe that the chain of evidence is complete enough for conviction in all cases. All of the youths involved have confessed their parts in the series of robberies and confessed to their knowledge of the shooting which they lay on Vandervoort authorities declare.

It was hinted in official circles Friday that council for the defense would have Vandervoort admit the killings on the stand and plead his case on the basis of insanity. "Clintoning Attorney E. J. West, of Clinton County, in anticipation of such a defense has expressed himself as ready to combat such an attempt on the part of the defense attorneys."

McKIN TO RETURN TO HIS STUDIES

Monroe, La., Jan. 26.—Dr. Bunne M. McKoin, charged with murder in connection with the "hooded mob" terror of Morehouse parish will return to Baltimore in the near future to resume his medical studies, it was learned here today.

McKoin is at liberty under $5,000 bond, but was restricted to Louisiana by State authorities following his arrest in Baltimore a month ago. This restriction will be lifted, according to reliable information.

McKoin first told of his plans at an impromptu conference with Attorney General Cocco who passed through Monroe en route to his home. The physician asked the attorney general's approval of the trip to Baltimore and the state official said he would interpose no objection.

VESSEL SINKS AND CREW IS DROWNED

Manila, P. I. Jan. 26.—One small ship of the Russian white fleet will never make port.

Word reached here that the straggle from the main section of the fleet sank in a storm off Formosa with all lives lost.

The exact number on board is not known here and cannot be checked by Admiral Stark, commanding the fleet until four other vessels reach port.

FIRE SWEEPS OVER BUCYRUS COMPANY

Bucyrus, O., Jan. 26.—Fire of undetermined origin partially destroyed the South Shops of the Hadfield-Penfield Steel Company here this morning with a loss estimated at $150,000.

Three hundred men are temporarily idle as a result. Manufacture of steel will be resumed in three weeks, it was afterward announced.

PRESIDENT FULLY RECOVERED.

Washington, Jan. 26.—President Harding returned today to his executive offices in the White House, fully recovered from the cold which has kept him in his room for ten days.

STONE HEADS BIG TOBACCO COMBINE

J. C. Stone, president of the Barley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association

J. C. Stone, President of the Barley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association, is the actual head of an organization of more than 78,000 farmers in Kentucky, Indiana, Ohio, West Virginia, Tennessee and Missouri. Under his direction, growers, in 1922, sold 139,000,000 pounds of tobacco. Mr. Stone was born in Richmond, Kentucky, January 3, 1878, and was educated at Centre University.

CHICAGO MAYOR THROUGH; WILL NOT RUN AGAIN

Thompson Says in Signed
Statement That He Will
Not Seek Office.

Chicago, Jan. 26.—William Hale Thompson, for eight years mayor of Chicago, threw a bomb shell into political circles today by announcing flatly and definitely that he will not be a candidate for re-election.

"I'm through," the mayor declared.

Thompson, a Republican, has been a power in normally Democratic Chicago since the day he first stepped into the political limelight. He was elected the first time by the staggering majority of 147,477 votes and since then has been engaged in a career that has been one of the most turbulent and dramatic in the history of American municipal politics.

Thompson attracted national attention during the war through the Joffre-Viviani incident, and through an interview in which Thompson was quoted as saying Chicago was "the sixth German city in the world." Thompson always has insisted this statement was garbled. Thompson declined to issue an invitation to Joffre and Viviani of France to visit Chicago when it was suggested to him.

For both of these incidents Thompson was bitterly attacked by the American press.

SENATE STORM OVER ACTIVITY OF BOYDEN NEAR

Foreign Relations Committee Meets to Consider
"Information."

Washington, Jan. 26.—The oratorical storm that has been threatening in the Senate over the activities of Col. R. W. Boyden, unofficial American member of the allied reparations commission drew appreciably nearer today when the Senate foreign relations committee met to consider the "ful information which Secretary of State Hughes laid before the committee in explanation of the American reparations policy."

The committee met at 10:30 o'clock to consider the Hughes report.

It was uncertain whether the irascible group composed of Senators Johnson, Moses, Brandegee and McCormick, would demand Col. Boyden's recall, members declining to commit themselves in advance of the discussion of the report.

Senator Borah, it was understood, planned to again ask the senate to approve of his resolution requesting President Harding to call an international economic conference. The resolution was withdrawn by Borah when it was first introduced as an amendment to the army appropriation bill.

FORMER FRENCH PREMIER AVERS TREATY BROKEN

Barthou Demands Nation
Be Declared in Default of
All Payments

RIOTS BREAK OUT

French Prepare to Bombard
German City in Case of Necessity

Essen, Jan. 26.—With a ring of steel encircling the Ruhr and Westphalian industrial zone, the French today began taking over German railways for military purpose. Absolute military control was imposed upon the Dusseldorf—Recklinhausen—Kettwig—Essen railroad and it was used solely for movement of troops and war materials.

Troops and artillery are being moved throughout the occupied areas while the French and Belgians are constantly strengthening all their military positions. Cavalry patrols have been established in most of the cities as a result of the increase in German rioting during the past thirty-six hours.

Paris, Jan. 26.—Louis Barthou, former French premier, and present chairman of the inter-allied reparations commission, charged today that Germany is "in open rebellion against the Versailles treaty." At a meeting of the reparations commission, M. Barthou, demanded that Germany be declared in general default in all payments and deliveries due under the treaty.

Chairman Barthou asked that discussion of the proposed indemnity moratorium for Germany be postponed because of the nature of developments in the Rhineland and Ruhr. In the meantime France urged that Germany be held to the schedule of payments agreed upon by the allied powers on May 21, 1921, in London. Under this schedule German indemnity was fixed at approximately $32,000,000,000.

According to the Petit Parisien, there are still between 40,000 and 50,000 Ruhr miners on strike including 30,000 miners employed in collieries of the Thyssen family.

The French and Belgians today put the finishing touches upon the military cordon established along the eastern fringe of the occupied area to prevent coal from being shipped into Germany from the Ruhr.

France is paying a tremendous sum to hold the newly occupied district. In a few days Premier Poincare will go before the chamber of deputies and ask an appropriation of 45,000,000 francs to meet occupational costs up to the end of February.

Minister of Public Works LeTroquer has reported from Dusseldorf that progress is being made in abolishing friction between the various official groups in the Ruhr and that everything will be working smoothly in a few days. The minister is making preparations for a long French stay but officials deny he is arranging for "permanent occupation."

The French foreign office considers that reports of rioting from Essen and Dusseldorf exaggerated. Advice from French military officials called the "riots" a demonstration by rowdy students. French officials do not believe that the adult populations of Dusseldorf and Essen were involved or that the disorders marked the real feelings of the German people.

Paris, Jan. 26.—The inter allied reparations commission today, proclaimed Germany voluntarily in general default of all reparations payments and deliveries. Motion to declare Germany in default was made by Louis Barthou, of France, chairman of the commission. Great Britain did not vote.

Dusseldorf, Jan. 26.—Violent anti-French riots, in which several persons were hurt, broke out here again today. The flames of anti-French wrath, which had been smoldering since an angry German mob was dispersed last night, flared up at the sight of French cavalry passing through the streets.

The Germans began to shout epithets and to hurl stones at the French horsemen.

The French fired into the air with their carbines and rode their horses into the crowd dispersing it.

Artillery and machine guns have been placed in the suburbs to bombard the city if the French deem that such a drastic war measure is necessary.

Tanks rumbled through Dusseldorf during the morning en route for the Oberhausen district, where the striking German mine, mill and railway workers have caused much trouble. Both Belgian and French troops are stationed at Oberhausen. The Belgians have had several collisions with strikers.

XENIA CHURCHES TO UNITE IN FAREWELL TO LOCAL PASTOR

Xenia City Churches will unite at the First Presbyterian Church Sunday, at seven o'clock, for the evening service, honoring the Rev. D. B. Dodds, retiring pastor of that church, who is leaving with his family next week, for his new pastorate in Pittsburgh, Pa.

The Rev. Mr. Dodds will deliver his farewell sermon at the Sunday evening service, after a pastorate of eight years in this city. He and his family, will leave by motor Tuesday for Oakmont, a residential section of Pittsburgh. There he will take up his work as pastor of the Oakmont United Presbyterian Church.

Incident to Dr. Dodds' resignation, the congregation of his church issued the following statements, Friday:

"The membership and adherents of the First United Presbyterian Church of Xenia, Ohio do hereby publicly express their appreciation of the faithful services and 'labor of love' rendered them by D. B. Dodds during his nine years' pastorate.

"As a minister of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, he zealously proclaimed the truth and was doctrinal and practical in all his preaching and teaching.

"As teacher of the Men's Bible Class, he was most efficient and was sincerely appreciated by the members of his class.

"Those who regularly attended the Mid-week Prayer Service will miss the spiritual uplift which peculiarly characterized the message of Dr. Dodds as he 'rightly divided the word of truth.'

"As a pastor, he was kind and sympathetic and brought comfort and cheer to the members of his flock in hours of sickness and bereavement.

"Dr. Dodds and his family will be missed from the various organizations of the congregation where they have served in many capacities of leadership.

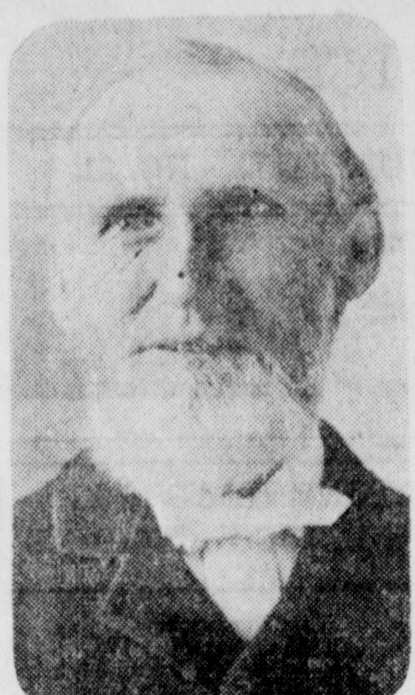

"The prayers and best wishes of the congregation will follow them wherever in the Providence of God they may be called to labor."

DAUGHERTY GIVEN CLEAN BILL.

Washington, Jan. 26.—The house, by a vote of 294 to 77, approved the action of its judiciary committee in giving Attorney General Daugherty a clean bill of health on the impeachment charges brought against him by Representative Keller (Rep., Minn.). Without a roll call and by practically a unanimous vote, it also adopted a resolution discharging the committee from further consideration of the charges and laying the Keller impeachment resolution on the table.

VETERAN MERCHANT TO BE BURIED ON SATURDAY MORNING

Funeral services for W. Clark Hutchison, Xenia's oldest merchant and senior member of the dry goods firm of Hutchison and Gibney, will be held at the Second United Presbyterian Church at 10:30 o'clock Saturday morning and burial will be made in Woodland Cemetery. Friends may call after four o'clock Friday afternoon at the home, 309 Washington Street.

Mr. Hutchison had been a merchant in Xenia 58 years and for 46 years his firm has been known as Hutchison and Gibney. Previous to that he was for ten years in business in Memphis, Tennessee, and he thus actually had 58 years of merchandizing experience.

BUYING POWER OF CROPS INCREASING

St. Louis, Jan. 26.—Farmers' crops last year had a 48 per cent greater purchasing value than the crops of 1921, Assistant Secretary Pugsley of the agricultural department told the Commercial club here during an address on "Wooing Prosperity." The total actual cash value of last year's crops, he said, was 43 per cent greater than in 1921, the increase amounting to approximately $2,000,000,000.

The return of better conditions, Mr. Pugsley declared, is particularly noticeable in the corn, tame grass and cotton sections.

Despite the increase over the preceding year, farmers' crops last year, the club was informed, had a purchasing value about 30 per cent below normal. Declaring that the situation was "still serious," Mr. Pugsley asserted that "prosperity can not permanently return until there is a fair exchange rate between the products of farm labor and capital and the products of factory labor and capital."

STATE'S ATTORNEY ATTACKS KU KLUX KLAN AS LAWLESS

Bastrop, La., Jan. 26.—The open hearing into activities of masked men in Morehouse parish having been concluded, announcement was made that the state militiamen would be withdrawn at an early date.

A statement was issued by Attorney General Coco that since the advent of the Ku Klux Klan in the parish there had arisen a condition of lawlessness and disorder which had "ripened into a supercession of constituted authorities by the Ku Klux Klan, from which a reign of terror and chaos have resulted."

Judge William Barnett, who is counsel for the members of the Klan identified in the hearing declared that "it was manifest from the very beginning that the real motive behind the prosecution was to convict the Ku Klux Klan in the forum of public opinion."

Attorney General Coco announced that the evidence gathered at the hearing would be presented to the grand jury "for its consideration and action as soon as we can get a transcript of it."

Judge Fred M. Odom, who presided at the hearing, took exception to certain statements of Judge Barnett and declared they were reflections upon the court and that he expected to issue a formal statement upon the subject.

Leon Jones, a traveling salesman, the last witness to testify at the hearing, declared that his car was disabled on the highway about three-quarters of a mile from Lake La Fourche "some time in August," and that during the night masked men passed him twice, once with and once without "prisoners."

It had been established by previous testimony that Watt Daniel and T. F. Richard, who, kidnapped, were placed in a small truck at the scene of the kidnapping and that they were in the truck when the cavalcade stopped at Collinston. Jones, however, could not say whether it was the night of Aug. 24 that he observed the truck near the lake.

The brief for the grand jury can not be prepared within less than three weeks after the work of transcribing evidence has been completed, which it is believed will require from four to six weeks.

VISITS COUNTY HOME

Dr. Tate, of the State Department visited the Greene County Children's Home Thursday where he examined the eyes of the children and found them all in good condition. In some institutions he has found serious eye trouble among the children and was pleased with the conditions in the local home.

SPURIOUS COINS MADE BY CONVICTS

Paducah, Ky., Jan. 26.—Convicted prohibition law violators confined in the Lyon county jail have been making money during their spare time, according to facts brought out by Edward L. Cooley, secret service operative, which resulted in the arrest of Burnett Stewart and Eugene Robinson and their arraignment here before United States Commissioner A. W. Blackburn on charges of counterfeiting. The men waived preliminary trials. A third warrant, for John Embarger, also a prisoner at the jail, has been issued. A search of the jail revealed spurious coins, mostly quarters, and plaster of paris molds.

CLOSES KINDERGARTEN

Mrs. Charles Davis of North Gallo-way Street, will open her kindergarten February, instead of next week, unless there is no abatement in the grip situation in the city. The large amount of sickness among the children, has caused the school to be closed, and it is hoped that a sufficient number will be recovered by that date, to warrant opening the classes.

CONVICTED IN THREE MINUTES.

Cleveland, Jan. 26.—It required a jury only three minutes to convict George Johnson on charges of guilty of assault to rob. This is the shortest time a jury ever took to consider a case here, Prosecutor Edward C. Stanton said. Johnson was one of four men who attempted to rob the Carnegie Drug company here several weeks ago. One of the bandits was shot and killed and Johnson wounded by the police.

Blackheaded Pimples Quit With S.S.S.

Why? Pimple-Poison Goes When Red-Blood-Cells Increase! S. S. S. Builds These Red-Blood-Cells.

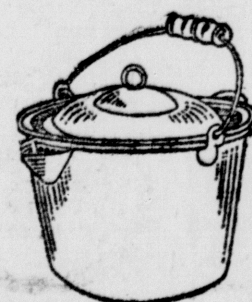

You can be sure of this, nature has no substitute for red-blood-cells. Pimple-poison can't live in the red rivers of your blood as long as there are enough rich red-blood-cells in it. More red-blood-cells!

That is what you need when you see pimples starting at you in the mirror. Black-headed pimples are worse! Eczema is worse yet! You can try everything under the sun—you'll find only one answer, more cell-power in your blood! The tremendous results, produced by an increase in red-blood-cells is one of the A. B. C.'s of medical science. Red-cells mean clear-pure rich blood. They mean clear, ruddy, lovable complexions. They mean nerve power, because all your nerves are fed by your blood. They mean freedom forever from pimples, from the blackhead pest, from boils, from eczema and skin eruptions, from rheumatism impurities, from that tired, exhausted, run-down feeling. Red-blood-cells are the most important thing in the world to each of us. S. S. S. will build them for you. S. S. S. has been known since 1858, as one of the greatest blood-builders, blood-cleansers and system strengtheners ever produced. S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores in two sizes. The larger size bottle is the more economical.

NEW LAMP BURNS

94% AIR

Beats Electric or Gas

A new oil lamp that gives an amazingly brilliant, soft, white light, even better than gas or electricity, has been tested by the U. S. Government and 35 leading universities and found to be superior to 10 ordinary oil lamps. It burns without odor, smoke or noise—no pumping up, is simple, clean, safe. Burns 94% air and 6% common kerosene (coal oil).

The inventor, E. A. Johnson, 609 W. Lake St., Chicago, Ill., is offering to send a lamp on 10 day's FREE trial, or even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him today for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency, and without experience or money make $250 to $500 per month.

CREAM CLEARS A STUFFED-UP HEAD

Instantly Opens Every Air Passage—Clears Throat, Too

If your nostrils are clogged and your head is stuffed because of nasty catarrh or a cold, apply a little pure, antiseptic cream into your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage, soothing and healing swollen, inflamed membranes and you get instant relief.

Try this. Get a small bottle of Fly's Cream Balm at any drug store. Your clogged nostrils open right up; your head is clear; no more hawking or snuffling. Count fifty. All the stuffiness, dryness, struggling for breath is gone. You feel fine.

A TOUGH SITUATION

"My wife and four children were dependent on me for their living. My stomach and liver trouble of five years had made me despondent as no medicine seemed to help me and I was gradually wasting away. It was a tough situation. My cousin in Columbus wrote me about having taken Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and advised me to try it. I am now feeling better than for fifteen years." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Sayre and Hemphill and druggists everywhere.

THE SECRET OF SOUND SLEEP.

If you want to get an eager response out of the average man or woman, just say solicitously, "How did you sleep last night?"

You can then devote yourself to your own thoughts, merely emitting an occasional murmur of sympathy, for few indeed are the persons who do not know what it is to wrestle with the Angel of Sleep, and to find him—or is it her?—a very refractory sort of angel.

Some years ago, Dr. Boris Sidis—who is a neurologist, psychologist, and various other kinds of scientific "ologists"—made an elaborate study of sleep. He is a native of Russia; came to this country when twenty years old, and lives at Portsmouth, N. H. He has given unusual attention to the cure of Insomnia. He says: "I found there were three conditions favorable to sleep: They were the limitation of voluntary movement, the limitation of the field of consciousness, and monotony.

"The first two sound very scientific. We professional men are inclined to use long words because we like to show off our vocabulary. But the limitation of voluntary movement really means keeping perfectly still; not turning and tossing about. And the limitation of the field of consciousness means shutting the mind against outside impressions.

"I found that by observing the three conditions mentioned I could put myself into a state of deep natural sleep at almost any time.

What are the thoughts that occupy the mind of a person who lies awake at night? Much of the time, of course, he is thinking about going to sleep; fearing he won't, and worrying because he doesn't. The rest of the time he is thinking about the same things that have occupied his thoughts during the day.

"The man keeps on thinking about his business problems. The woman thinks about her domestic cares. If people are not well, or believe they are not well, they think about their health.

"Now, here is a very important fact: When we use a nerve cell, we exhaust some of its stored-up energy. When we allow it to rest, it stores up new energy in place of what has been used. Mental fatigue comes through a continuous use of the same group of cells without giving them a chance to renew their store of energy.

"You probably are disappointed because I don't tell you things to do about eating and bathing and exercise, or give you a lot of schemes for counting, or tell you to count sheep jumping over a fence, or something like that. Most people want to use 'trick plays' of this sort. But they are fundamentally valueless, because they do not get at the root of the matter.

"Indeed, they are more likely to prevent sleep than to induce it. The trouble is that they demand concentration of the attention, whereas it should be dissipated instead. You may get some purely temporary benefit from them, because they keep you from thinking about the worries of the day, and so let the brain cells which are fatigued have a chance to rest. But you can accomplish the same result in a better way by relaxing the mind and body. And this will give permanent benefit, as well as better temporary results.

"At first, you will have to compel yourself to keep still. You will think that you simply must move your head, if only an inch or two. You will have to restrain yourself, by an effort of the will, for several minutes. But then you will find that your inclination to make that particular movement has passed."

U. S. MAIL IN 1850.

Benjamin Franklin, that delightful philosopher and astute statesman, laid the foundation of the present postal system of the United States. All the earlier postal history of the 13 American colonies radiates about him as the central figure. Franklin first served as postmaster of Philadelphia. He ran the office very much like a fourth class office in the smaller community life of this country is managed today. He owned a weekly newspaper and the post office was operated in conjunction with this publication.

Franklin was named deputy postmaster general of the British colonies of America in the year 1753. Immediately his troubles began. Dispatching and delivering letters throughout the thickly wooded and sparsely populated areas in these pioneer times was a difficult task and there was little to encourage him. Then the mails were transported by couriers and six weeks were consumed in making the excursion from Philadelphia to Boston. During the winter months the couriers ventured out only twice in every 30 days. In most instances travelers made much faster time than the mail couriers along the same roads so that the postal system in the middle of the 18th century was unreliable as well as precarious.

UNITED STATES TRADE WITH CANADA.

Often it is claimed by free traders that a protective tariff will injure if not destroy our trade with foreign countries, because "no nation can buy unless it sells." It is claimed by the theorist that an adequate protective tariff (called "high" by the enemies of protection) will make it impossible for the United States to sell to foreign countries in any large measure because foreign countries cannot sell us; they are blocked by the protective tariff.

If this is a general truth, then it must apply to any and all foreign countries with which we trade. Let us apply it to Canada. The Fordney-McCumber protective tariff has been in operation about three months or less.

In October, 1922, Canada imported from the United States about $42,900,000 in merchandise; in October, 1921, Canada imported from the United States about $42,300,000 in merchandise. This was more in October, 1922, under a protective tariff than in October, 1921, under a low tariff called free trade.

In October, 1922, Canada exported to the United States more than $32,800,000 in merchandise; in October, 1921, exported about $28,400,000 in merchandise. Canada exported to the United States more merchandise under protection than under free trade.

In other words, our trade with Canada was greater under protection than under free trade. This demonstrates that protection does not interfere with foreign trade.

Another free trade theory exploded!

SO FAR AS WE ARE CONCERNED

1903--Twenty Years Ago--1923

The People's Gas and Electric Light Company of Xenia, has the plans now well under way for the improvements in the plant here, which will make it second to none for a city of this size. The company has decided to combine the electric light and gas plants and both will be on the site which the gas plant now occupies. While the new McKinley school building is almost completed and the work upon it could be rushed through in a couple of weeks, it is not likely that the building will be occupied this school year. The County Commissioners were in the western part of the county yesterday looking into the matter of a change on the line of the D. and X. traction road, on the premises of Squire Ferguson. Mr. Lester Barnes who has been spending several weeks on a visit at Cottage Hill, Florida, is expected home tomorrow. Mrs. Barnes will return later.

A great many women write to me complaining of the ridges on their finger nails, and I don't believe very many of them try hard to get rid of these lines. For, of course, it can be done no matter how badly the nails may look. If the ridges are very sharp and have existed a long time, it will take years. But it's worth the effort, especially as a great deal of improvement will be noticed from the first few treatments. These treatments are as simple as can be.

First of all, give the nails plenty of oil to nourish them and to soften them. Wear gloves at night, over hands smeared liberally with oil or cream. Protect the hands with rubber gloves when dishwashing and with canvas gloves when sweeping. After a week of this (a form of protection which, however should go on all the time) begin the other part of the treatment.

Soak the nails in warm soapy water, file and trim as far as ordinary manicure. Take a fine piece of pumice stone, wet and rub with a little soap. Go over the surface of each bad nail, wearing down the ridges of the nail, and paying no attention to the scratchy surface you produce. Wash again, dab with vaseline or olive oil or cold cream, wipe dry.

Then take a buffer and some good polishing powder, and rub and rub. You'll rub off all the scratches, leaving the nails slightly less ridged than before and much healthier for all this friction. Do this every week or so. Use plenty of oil every day and you'll not know your own nails in a few months or a year. This same treatment will prevent ridges from deepening, when they first appear. Pretty nails are worth any amount of effort, I think. Mrs. A. —You can take yeast with perfect confidence for it will ferment inside you and make you swell up as you suggest. It is a blood purifier and it cures constipation, and is not bad for heart or kidneys. Take three cakes a day if the condition is acute. It not one or two cakes of compressed yeast is quite enough. Melt it in water and drink it or spread on bread. The Kid—A really good skin special list can cure smallpox marks. I would advise you to see a good doctor about this, though you can do a little yourself by massaging the skin with cold cream and rubbing it for ten minutes with ice. Tomorrow—The Well Rounded

does wonders for chafed or irritated skins

"My doctor told me about it and if I couldn't get another jar I wouldn't give this one up for anything."

That is how many people regard Resinol Ointment. It is especially recommended for eczema and other itching skin troubles, but it is also excellent as a general household remedy for burns, scalds, chafings, cold sores, pimples, boils, insect bites, etc.

Resinol Soap and Resinol Shaving Stick contain the Resinol properties and no home should be without these products. At all druggists.

Philatelist—The value of an old postage stamp is greatly decreased by the presence of any tear or imperfection in it. Even a corner off, or a few of the perforated edges missing, might make the label worth one-quarter of its value in perfect condition.

R. R. R.—There is indeed a whispering gallery in the Capital at Washington, and so carefully is it planned that when the attendant stands 100 or more feet away from the spot, and speaks in his lowest possible voice, it sounds most distinct and audible to the listener.

Conservator—It takes from 110 to 125 years for a beech tree to grow large enough for it to be used as poles or piling.

MEMOIRS.

All my friends are writing books treating their misspent lives, telling tales about their cooks and their uncles and their wives; memoirs writers come in troops, writing stories of their coops; modesty will loop the loops, if this memoir graft survives. Ten cent people buy some ink and indulge in pompous prose, telling of the dope they drink and the color of their hose; of their journeys far and near, of the kind of cars they steer, of adventures making beer where the wild budweiser grows. Silly women take their pens and relate in great detail narratives of setting hens, and of doings flat and stale; gossip of a frowsy past makes the reader cry, "Dodgast! These punk memoirs are the last I shall read while out of jail!" Every gent his pen will grab, since we have the memoirs itch, though his life may be as drab as a mudhole in a ditch; though he has no writing skill, endless pages he will fill with his egotistic swill, memoirs readers to bewitch. Every delegate embarks on the moaning memoirs tide, and we are such easy marks that no writer is denied; and we tread the pavement stones to blow in our hard-earned bones for "The Book of Jackass Jones," by all dealers now supplied.

Today's Talk

RECOGNIZE YOUR OWN LUCK

We will never understand luck very well until we recognize that it isn't something that is given—"with out money and without price."

Luck is something that you have to earn as you do your bread.

I have never heard a person of as lucky without smiling to myself. And I have usually said to myself: "Well, I am of the opinion that he is a worker."

For work is in reality the tree that bears the fruit of luck.

Don't waste your time bemoaning your luck. That's why you have none.

Luck, after all, is pretty fairly distributed in this workaday world.

The luckiest man isn't the one who makes the most money or accumulates the greatest fame.

Nothing like that. The lucky man is he who discovered most about himself—and used that knowledge to the highest degree for the benefit of others.

I have a friend who seems to have the ability to make everybody love him.

He is an inspiration to me. But you see, I know the secret! He makes it his business to love other people. And now he is making much money—and he is famous, which are mere incidents.

That's the way luck works.

Of course luck doesn't function all the time. Neither does the apple tree, as far as fruit is concerned. A man wouldn't amount to much with a sea of luck to swim in all the time.

The best idea is to forget luck altogether. Just go right on with what you have, and do your work to the best of your ability.

Luck won't forget you. Because he likes people!

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE BEING CONDUCTED

The Rev. E. W. Moyer, pastor of the Mt. Zion Reformed Church, is leading the drive among the members of his congregation for an increase in attendance at the church, each Sunday.

A chart in the Sunday school room of the church registers the attendance in the form of a graph, showing for the last four months the progress of the campaign.

In September, the average was 85, and on the 24th of that month, the highest was reached with 112. October was the banner month, with an average attendance of 102, twice going above the hundred mark in attendance. October 22, 130 were present and on the 29th of that month 159 members attended. In November, the hundred mark was reached only twice, with 104 attending November 12, with a one hundred per cent attendance November 19. The average attendance for that month was 91.

The school attained an average attendance of 87 in December, going over the 100 mark once during the month, the high mark being 123. An attendance of 100 or more was reached six Sundays out of the 18 during the last three months. The total enrollment of the Sunday School scholars as reported to classes is listed as 132, including the cradle roll and home department. During January the 100 mark has not been reached, this goal being set as an average attendance.

Sunday morning, at 10:30 o'clock, the Rev. Mr. Moyer will preach on "Justification by Faith." A Junior talk, "The Story of the Broken Cup," will also be given during the morning service. Afternoon worship will be held at 2:30 o'clock.

At the annual joint Consistory meeting of Beaver Creek church, held Tuesday, action was taken to make the change in the hours of preaching from afternoon to morning, February 15. The usual time heretofore was to change on the first Sunday in February.

"Get Ourselves," instead of "Get the Other Fellow," has been suggested as a slogan in the attendance contest. The last year's report of the church shows that the attendance is about 50 per cent of the enrollment of the Sunday School.

Feb. 4, 1911. Besides her husband she is survived by two children, Estelle and Jesse. Her mother, Mrs. T. M. Mays, and three brothers, Edward and John Mays, of Xenia, and James Mays of Lexington, Va., also survive.

Mrs. Blair was a member of Pride of America Lodge, No. 140 Daughter of America Lodge. Funeral arrangements have not been completed and will be announced later.

Styles BY LENORE

This little costume is the sort of thing that makes a grown-up conscious of her age. It belongs exclusively to extreme youth. The jaunty little coat is of gray—oh, a very light silvery gray, and the skirt a combination of the gayest red imaginable with hairlines of yellow and blue. A simple white sport shirt of cotton or crepe de chine is worn underneath the coat. A sleeveless jumper in orchid flannel with a long sleeved guimpe of white poplin, worn with a black wind-sor tie, is another effective frock shown in a Fifth Avenue shop.

Equally practical but more decorative, is a dark blue sleeveless frock with an applique of cut-out poppies running down the left side.

The home dressmaker will find chintz and cretonne patterns very suggestive for this type of ornamentation.

HIRAM H. FAWCETT CALLED BY DEATH

Hiram H. Fawcett, 73, well known farmer of the New Jasper neighborhood, died at his home south of New Jasper, Thursday night at 11:30 o'clock. Mr. Fawcett had been ailing for several months from heart trouble. Death was caused by the latter affliction and pneumonia.

Mr. Fawcett was born near Paintersville, December 15, 1850, and had resided in this county all of his life. His marriage to Miss Elizabeth Smith took place September 1, 1870, who survives, with the following children, Mrs. Ollie M. Spahr, of near New Jasper, Mrs. James Jones of near Xenia, Fred Fawcett of near New Jasper and Mrs. Archie Peterson, of near Cedarville. Four grandchildren, and seven great grandchildren, also survive Mr. Fawcett's death.

He was a member of the New Jasper M. E. Church, and the Jamestown I. O. O. F. Lodge.

Funeral services will be conducted from the late home, Monday afternoon at one o'clock, with interment at Woodland cemetery.

F. Herndon.

White-of-Egg in Calumet a Vital Element Most Baking Powders Lack

Don't use a leavener that does not contain white-of-egg. When you do you take chances—you run the risk of spoiling your bakings.

CALUMET

The Economy BAKING POWDER

contains a small amount of white-of-egg. This makes it possible for representatives of the company to test it frequently for leavening strength—right on the dealer's counter. Nothing but absolutely fresh stock is permitted to remain on the dealer's shelves. It must always be up to the high Calumet standard.

BEST BY TEST

Remember the white-of-egg in Calumet protects the success of your bakings. It is the economical positive bake-day aid and its sale is 2½ times as much as that of any other brand.

A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 ounces. Some baking powders come in 12 ounce instead of 16 ounce cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

IF RHEUMATIC BEGIN ON SALTS
Says We Must Keep Feet Dry,
Avoid Exposure, Eat
No Sweets.

Stay off the damp ground, avoid exposure, keep feet dry, eat no sweets of any kind for a while, drink lots of water and above all take a spoonful of Jad Salts occasionally to help keep down uric and toxic acids.

Rheumatism is caused by poison toxins, called acids, which are generated in the bowels and absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine. The pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly, cold weather, the skin pores are closed, thus forcing the kidneys to do double work; they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate this poison, which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles, causing stiffness, soreness and pain, called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is helpful to neutralize acidity, remove body waste also to stimulate the kidneys, thus helping to rid the blood of these rheumatic poisons. Jad Salts is inexpensive and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism.

FOUR GAMES ARE SCHEDULED HERE FRIDAY EVENING

Basketball patrons at Central High School will be afforded the biggest court menu that has been served them this season Friday night, when four games will be played on the evening's program, all for the single admission price.

In order to crowd all of the contests into the events without delaying the big game, the first game will start at 6:30 o'clock and will be played between the sixth grade teams of Central building and McKinley.

The second game on the program is the clash between the Clifton High School Freshman five and the Central High freshman team of this city. The game postponed from last week between the Greek Wops of Wittenberg College, Springfield and the South Side Merchants, a Municipal League entry, will furnish the semi-final directly preceding the main event between Xenia and Piqua High teams.

When the blue and white court combination takes the floor Friday night it will be the first time Coach Earl Burners' pets have been trotted into the coliseum to do battle with a foe for two weeks the locals having a vacation enforced by illness last week that was occasioned by the cancellation of the Greenfield McClain game. The local athletes should be in the pink for the battle with the Piquas which will get under way about 8:15 o'clock.

MRS. LAURA MITMAN DIES ON THURSDAY

Mrs. Laura Mitman, 70, formerly of Osborn, died Thursday evening at the home of her son, O. P. Mitman, 135 East McClellan avenue, Springfield, pneumonia being the cause of death, Mrs. Mitman taking ill Wednesday, her condition becoming critical over night.

Mrs. Mitman was a member of the First Lutheran church in Springfield and for many years was a member of the Lutheran Church in Osborn. She is survived by one son, O. P. Mitman, Springfield, two grandchildren, and one brother William Bryan, of Springfield.

Brief funeral services will be held at the late residence in Springfield, Saturday afternoon at one o'clock, and the body will be taken to the Osborn Lutheran Church where services will be held at 2:30 o'clock. Burial will be made in the Osborn cemetery.

Cedarville College Notes

Grip has found several victims in the College. Among the most serious are, Miss Brand, Bee Walton, Donald Wickersham, Harold Myers, Marston Hunt and Florence Smith.

County Superintendent of Schools H. C. Aultman visited the college for the benefit of the teachers' training class, last week. He also gave an interesting talk to the student body during the chapel exercises.

Hubert Smith visited Oren Smith at his home near Wilmington over the last week end.

Richard L. Garnett, of Glasgow, Ky., student of the O. S. U. Law course, visited G. La Clede Markle over the last week end. They were together in the Marine Corps during the War. They were entertained at the Davis home.

The second semester of Cedarville college opens next Wednesday morning at 9:30. Registration will take place, Tuesday, January 30 and Wednesday, Jan. 31. A number of new students will enter. Rev. G. A. Scott, D. D., pastor of the First M. E. Church, Xenia, will make the opening address of the semester, Thursday, Feb. 1. All are invited.

President McChesney went to Waverly, Ohio, Thursday where he will make two addresses to the Teachers' Institute of Pike County on Friday. From Waverly, he will go to Lafayette, Ind., where he will preach morning and evening in the Central Presbyterian Church next Sunday.

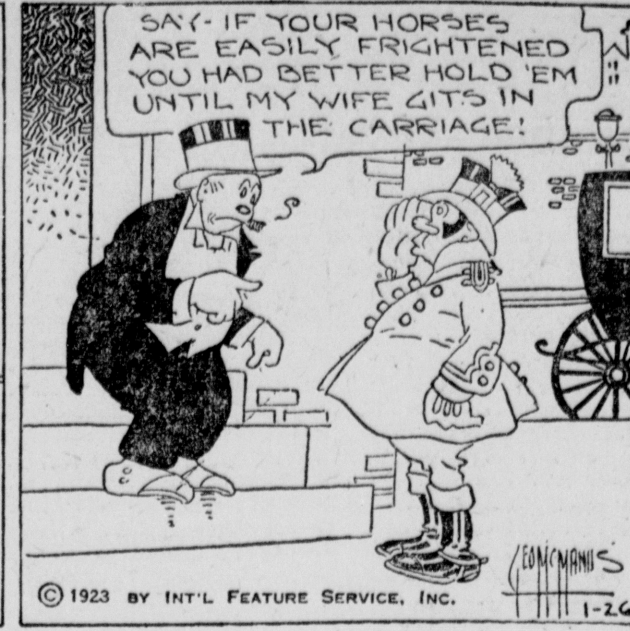

MRS. MARY A. TILLOTSON, COLUMBUS, O.

Recovers from Long Illness Due to Stomach Trouble and Rheumatism by Taking Ka-di-ok.

"I hardly believe I would be alive today if it was not for Ka-di-ok. It has practically given me a new lease of life," says Mrs. Mary A. Tillotson, a well-known Columbus woman, residing at 431 E. Livingston Avenue. The Ka-di-ok expert a few days ago. Further continuing, Mrs. Tillotson said: "For over a year I was laid up with stomach trouble and rheumatism and for several months lived entirely on a milk or bread-and-milk diet, as I could not keep anything else on my stomach; I was in such a bad condition that I could scarcely walk across the room. Sometimes there would be large knots in my limbs, caused by rheumatism, which caused the intense pain and suffering. I had no idea of getting better, but acting on the advice of a friend, I was induced to start taking Ka-di-ok. It was certainly a wonderful thing for me when I did so. After a few days' treatment I am now able to eat any food that appeals to me and have no distress afterwards. I am getting stronger every day and am now doing my housework. I recently walked several blocks, something I have not been able to do in months, as I have been practically bed-ridden. Ka-di-ok is the finest remedy in the world and has made me feel like a new woman."

Ka-di-ok can be obtained at Sayre & Hamphill's Drug Store, Xenia.

IF SKIN BREAKS OUT AND ITCHES APPLY SULPHUR

Just the moment you apply Mentho-Sulphur to an itching, burning or broken out skin, the itching stops and healing begins, says a noted skin specialist. This sulphur preparation made into a pleasant cream, gives such a quick relief, even to fiery eczema, that nothing has ever been found to take its place.

Because of its germ destroying properties, it quickly subdues the itching, cools the irritation and heals the eczema right up, leaving a clear, smooth skin in place of ugly eruptions, rash, pimples or roughness.

You do not have to wait for improvement. It quickly shows. You can get a little of Rowles' Mentho-Sulphur at any drug store.

Knitted Shetland Floss Slip-On: (Vicunda or Iceland may be used instead of the Shetland if desired.) Light ounces of the wool, one pair of number four ivory knitting needles. Cast on 84 stitches, knit 12 ribs (24 rows). Twenty-fifth row: Knit 1, * yarn over the needle, knit 1, * repeat from star to star across the entire row. Twenty-sixth row: Knit three ribs, (6 rows). These seven rows make the pattern throughout the sweater. Knit in pattern for 17 inches. Increase one stitch at each end of needle every other row five times (ten stitches), then add to ten stitches at each end of needle six times (120 stitches, or 60 stitches at each side); knit five inches (always keeping your pattern.)

Next Row: Knit 86 stitches, * knit 2, purl 2, * repeat from star to star for 42 stitches, knit 86 stitches, * knit 2, purl 2, * repeat from star to star for 42 stitches, knit 86 stitches, repeat these two rows till you have knitted ten rows.

Next row: Knit 86 stitches, and slip on a stitch holder, knit 2, purl 2, knit 2, bind off 30 stitches, knit 2, purl 2, knit 2, knit 86 stitches.

Next Row: Knit 86 stitches, knit 2, purl 2, knit 2.

Next Row: Knit 2, purl 2, knit 2, knit 86 stitches, repeat these two rows twice. Make other shoulder to correspond.

Now cast on 30 stitches, to take the place of the ones bound off in back, and knit 2, purl 2, for 42 stitches; knit 86 stitches for ten more rows. Knit four inches bind off four stitches at each end of needle at times till 60 stitches are bound off. Decrease one stitch at each end of needle every other row five times and make front correspond with back at under arm.

Cuffs: Pick up stitches and knit 2, purl 2 for three and one-half inches. Waist Cord: Take five strands of yarn and twist, double back and tie about three inches from each end, to form the tassel.

This is a very graceful model suitable for young women of almost any age.

DOREEN DISPUTES A BILL

CHAPTER 88

The next morning before he left for the studio, Walter called the superintendent and ordered strong bolts put on both outside doors. He insisted I must rest, was very loving and tender with me, claiming I had been wonderfully brave and so on.

Mrs. Page too was unusually gentle said she should probably have fainted at once, or done something as foolish.

I felt that it would be almost worth going through my fright again to be so considered.

An officer came and questioned me. They had found a man prowling about not far from the apartment, had held him.

I could tell them little as the man's face was covered, and aside from his height and that he wore dark clothes, and a slouch hat, my information was of no assistance.

For two or three days Walter's loving care was evident, then he drifted into his old ways.

We ceased talking about the burglar and I once more had reason to think he was devoting himself to Vashiti Vernon.

I was looking over the monthly bills. When I opened a florist's bill I was amazed at the amount. We had had a few flowers in the house, small orders for table and so on. But nothing that could make such a sum.

I went through the items, and found roses, orchids, and so on charged in several instances.

I called at the florists and told him there was some mistake, that he had charged me with flowers I had not ordered. He got out his book and said:

"Mr. Page ordered such and such flowers. Let me see, they were delivered at the Ritz Hotel." The bill was right after all. I did not pay it. I told him I would send a check. I had no idea what I should do, whether I should speak to Walter or not; could not think with the man's eyes upon me in quizzical fashion.

"Mr. Page forgot to mention sending them," I said, feeling the florist was smiling knowingly.

"That's all right, Mrs. Page. It often happens."

As I walked slowly away I thought of that last remark of his:

"It often happens."

Did so many other married men send flowers to women? And did other wives go to the florists only to be informed of this fact?

For two days I pondered as to whether I should say anything to Walter. Then I concluded to do so. I waited until we were alone and said:

"Walter, I wish you'd look over this florist's bill. It's out of all reason. We have had very few flowers this month."

His face flushed.

"I have ordered some for the studio," he said after a moment. "I'll take it and have it straightened out."

"That isn't necessary," I would perhaps have said nothing had he not tried to parry the issue, to deceive me. "I have seen the florist, he looked up each item for me. Those marked went to the Ritz, and were ordered by you."

Walter turned white with anger. "What if I did send a few flowers to Vashiti? That's my business!"

Nice thing to have a wife who goes snooping around making a fuss to a tradesman because her husband orders a few flowers!"

"I didn't make any fuss, Walter. I thought he had charged us with things we had not bought. You have been very generous with Miss Vernon." I couldn't help that last; is just slipped out.

"Why shouldn't I be? She is very generous with her time; gives me as many sittings as I wish—and no complaints. Not a professional model either. Most society women and girls aren't dependable; say they will come and don't."

"You needn't explain so elaborately I understand," I said coldly. "I'll send a check as usual."

"That's right! Speak in that hurt tone."

One would think to hear you I had no right to spend my own money." He was working himself into a rage, when fortunately his mother came in.

"Am I intruding?" She looked from Walter's red eyes to mine, which I knew was pale.

"No indeed!" I said quickly. While Walter, with a stifled exclamation left the room.
